

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Louis L. Owens of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind and memory do publish and declare this as my last will and testament, this the nineteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty eight.

Item One, My executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial and pay all funeral expenses and other just debts out of the first moneys coming into his hands from any part or parcels of my estate.

Item Two, I give and devise to my daughter Doris Owens Ayers, the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), as she married against my will, however, she has at this time separated and living apart from her husband Jewell Ayers, and should she remain separate and apart from him and secure an absolute divorce, it is my will that my executor hereinafter named shall pay to her the said Doris Owens Ayers, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in cash from moneys coming from my insurance policies.

Item Three, I give and devise to my beloved wife Mary Leisep Owens, all of my estate both real and personal of whatsoever nature or description and wheresoever situated, to have and to hold to her the said Mary Leisep Owens, in fee simple forever.

I do hereby appoint my wife Mary Leisep Owens, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament without bond, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

Witness my hand and seal this the 22 day of June, 1928

Louis L. Owens, (seal)

Signed, published and declared in our presence by Louis L. Owens, to be his last will and testament and witness by each of us in his presence who at his request subscribed our names as witnesses to said will in his presence, and in the presence of each other.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Louis L. Owens, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Mary Leisep Owens, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Louis L. Owens, is proved by the oath and examination of J. K. Reid and Van B. Martin, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Louis L. Owens; that the said Louis L. Owens, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 19th day of June, 1928.

And the deponent further saith that the said Louis L. Owens, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Louis L. Owens was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

J. K. Reid,

North Carolina, Washington County:

I, H. F. Lucas, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my beloved wife, Missouri P. Lucas, in fee simple, all of the estate of which I may die possessed real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description, and wherever to be found at the time of my death, to use and dispose of as she may see fit and proper.

Third, I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Missouri P. Lucas, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said H. F. Lucas, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 20th day of June, 1928.

H. F. Lucas, (Seal)
