

North Carolina, } ss. In the Superior Court,
 Washington County,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writings and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament and Codicil of Susan Lasker, deceased. Let said Will together with the probate be recorded and filed.

This 3d day of December, 1926

C. W. Tanshew

Clk Superior Court

Will of Claude St. Patrick

I have in the Mountain Trust Bank, Raleigh N.C.	$45.45
The N.C. Ry owes me	109.50
I have check in my Pocket Book	96.03
Also cash in " " "	38.00
	$289.51

If I should happen to pass away I have left this to the under taker
 I also have a Paid up insurance Policy, $15,500.00 in my will I want the remainder after my debts is paid to go to
 Brothers in Law G. L. Spinnell Paper, N. C. Sgn
 C. W. Patrick

State of Maryland,
 City of Baltimore,

Sister Vincent being first duly sworn, says: That she is a nurse in St. Agnes Hospital in the City of Baltimore; that she knows Claude St. Patrick and remembers the time that he was admitted to said Hospital; That the said Claude St. Patrick underwent an operation in said Hospital on the 27th day of November, 1926, and died in said Hospital on the 28th day of November following; that immediately before he went to the operating room for said operation the said Claude St. Patrick wrote out in his own hand writing, the instrument of writing hereto attached, signed the same and delivered it to your affiant and told your affiant that if anything happened to him to send it to his brother in law, G. L. Spinnell; That after the death of the said Claude St. Patrick your affiant delivered the said instrument hereto attached, together with a suspicious certificate in the Instructions of Pauline Hammer which your affiant found in his bed, and his other papers and effects to Sister Mary Clare at the office in said Hospital to be mailed as directed by said Patrick and that Sister Clare forwarded the same, by registered mail, to George L. Spinnell at Paper, North Carolina; That at the time aforesaid the said C. St. Patrick was alone and none of his relations were with him or near him; That your affiant knows that the said paper writing is in the hand writing of the said C. St. Patrick.

Sister Vincent

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 27th day of December, 1926.
 (Seal) Adrian Hughes, Notary Public,

My commission expires May 1, 1927.

North Carolina,
Washington County,
In the matter of the last Will and
Testament of Claude H. Patrice,

Affidavit.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, say: That they are citizens and residents of Washington County, North Carolina, and are not interested in the estate of Claude H. Patrice, deceased; that your affiants are acquainted with the handwriting of said Claude H. Patrice, having often seen him write and that they truly believe that the name of Claude H. Patrice subscribed to the paper writing hereto attached, and the said paper writing itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice; that the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Claude H. Patrice; that your affiants are not interested in the estate of the said Claude H. Patrice and are not named as devisers or legatees in the said paper writing.

C. E. Spunill
H. S. Spunill
A. R. Spunill.

Sworn and subscribed to before me,

This the 4th day of December, 1926.

C. W. Ansborn

Clerk of the Superior Court,

North Carolina,
Washington County,
In the matter of the last Will and
Testament of Claude H. Patrice,

Superior Court.

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Claude H. Patrice, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by G. L. Spunill, the legatee therein named; and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of Sister Vincent that the said Will was delivered to her by the testator for safe keeping along with other valuable papers and effects of the deceased to be transmitted to G. L. Spunill at Cooper, North Carolina. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: C. E. Spunill, H. S. Spunill, A. R. Spunill, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said Claude H. Patrice, subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice, and it is further proved by the oath of the last named witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Claude H. Patrice. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last Will and Testament of the said Claude H. Patrice, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed as such.

This the 4th day of December, 1926.

C. W. Ansborn

Clerk of the Superior Court

North Carolina,

Washington County,

In the matter of the last Will and
Testament of Claude H. Patrice,

Affidavit.

The undersigned being duly sworn, say: That they are citizens and residents of Washington County, North Carolina, and are not interested in the estate of Claude H. Patrice, deceased; that your affiants are acquainted with the handwriting of said Claude H. Patrice, having often seen him write and that they truly believe that the name of Claude H. Patrice subscribed to the paper writing hereto attached, and the said paper writing itself and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice; that the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Claude H. Patrice; that your affiants are not interested in the estate of the said Claude H. Patrice and are not named as devisors or legatees in the said paper writing.

C. E. Spunill

H. S. Spunill

A. R. Spunill.

Sworn and subscribed to before me,

This the 4th day of December, 1926.

C. D. W. Ansborn

Clerk of the Superior Court,

North Carolina,

Washington County,

In the matter of the last Will and
Testament of Claude H. Patrice.

Superior Court

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Claude H. Patrice, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by G. L. Spunill, the legatee therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examinations of Sister Vincent that the said Will was delivered to her by the testator for safe keeping along with other valuable papers and effects of the deceased to be transmitted to G. L. Spunill at Asheville, North Carolina. And it is further proved by the oath and examinations of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: C. E. Spunill, H. S. Spunill, A. R. Spunill, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said Claude H. Patrice, subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Claude H. Patrice, and it is further proved by the oath of the last named witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Claude H. Patrice. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last Will and Testament of the said Claude H. Patrice, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed as such.

This the 4th day of December, 1926.

C. D. W. Ansborn

Clerk of the Superior Court