

I, Lloyd J. Peacock, of the town of Roper in the county of Washington and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make my last will and testament in the manner and form following.

First, I give and devise and bequeath to my three daughters, Alice, Ida and Myrtle, the house and lot that I now live in and on located on West side of Bush Street. The above named three daughters are to give my daughter Hattie E. Bell a home for life time, or as long as she lives separate from her present husband.

Second, I give to my daughter Jane the wife of Gabriel Jones the sum of Twenty Five Dollars in cash, $25.00.

Third, I give to my daughter Myrtle the piano.

Fourth, I hereby direct and empower my executrix to dispose of and convey any of my other property to pay my just debts and burial expenses.

Fifth, I hereby appoint my daughter Ida E. Peacock executrix of this my last will and testament, without bond.

In Witness Whereof, I Lloyd J. Peacock, the testator, have to this my last will and testament, set my hand and my seal, this eighteenth day of August, A.D. 1933.

Lloyd J. Peacock, Seal.

Witness C. L. Maekin
Jack McAllister.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court
Washington County } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Lloyd J. Peacock, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Ida E. Peacock, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Lloyd J. Peacock is proved by the oath and examination of C. L. Maekin and Jack McAllister, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Lloyd J. Peacock; that the said Lloyd J. Peacock, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 18th day of August, 1933,

And the deponent further saith that the said Lloyd J. Peacock, the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Lloyd J. Peacock was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

C. L. Maekin

Jack McAllister

Solemnly sworn and subscribed this 22nd day of January, 1934, before me,

C. W. Anshon

Clerk Superior Court,

North Carolina,

Washington County } In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of Lloyd J. Peacock, deceased and the same, with the foregoing examinations and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed,

This 22nd day of January, 1934.

C. W. Anshon

Clerk Superior Court,