It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Emma C. Angel, deceased, Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed,

This 17th day of Sept. 1913.

C. D. W. Ansborn,

Clerk Superior Court

Personally appeared before me this day E. H. Angel and A. T. Angel, who qualified as Executors to the foregoing will by taking and subscribing to the oath prescribed for the qualifications of Executors,

This 17th day of Sept. 1913,

C. D. W. Ansborn, c.c.

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, Isaac Riddick, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament;

First, my executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate;

Second, I give and devise to my beloved wife Charlotte Riddick, the lot and houses whereon I now reside, and all of my goods and chattels, in satisfaction of her dower and third in my estate, after her death, the lot and houses on which I now reside, together with all of my goods and chattels shall go to my son Willie A. Riddick, in fee simple.

Third, Willie A. Riddick shall pay to my son John H. Riddick, the sum of two dollars, and to my Grandson Isaac Williams, the sum of two dollars, and to my Granddaughter Annie M. Williams, the sum of two dollars, and to my Granddaughter Alverda Williams, the sum of two dollars, to be paid within two years after the death of his mother,

Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Willie A. Riddick, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills by me heretofore made,

In witness whereof, I the said Isaac Riddick, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 30th day of May, 1913, I also give to my daughter, Luella, two dollars,

Isaac Riddick (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Isaac Riddick, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Isaac Riddick, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Willie A. Riddick, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Isaac Riddick by the oath and examination of J. L. Hassell & W. J. Sears, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Isaac Riddick; that the said Isaac Riddick, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 31st day of May, 1913.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Isaac Riddick, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Isaac Riddick was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

J. L. Hassell,
W. J. Sears
