North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Willie Roberson, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and Testament:

First. My executors, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first money which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved wife, Anna Eliza Roberson, during her natural life time, all the property of which I may die possessed, real, personal and mixed, whenever and wherever the same may be found.

Third. At the death of my said wife, I give and bequeath to my youngest son, W. W. Roberson, my entire estate as mentioned in altero two of this will, subject to the following bequests, which shall be paid by the said W. W. Roberson, and which shall be a lien upon the said property until same are paid:

(a) To Fannie Eliza Roberson and Edith Louise Roberson, jointly, my best bed room suit, including furniture, bed, bedding, etc.

(b) To W. E. Roberson, Tabitha L. Danversport, Eric L. Bowen, and Fannie Whidbee, the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars each, provided that any amount either of them shall be owing me at the time of my death shall be paid to my said wife, and if she be dead, then to my executors, and to be by them equally divided between my children.

(c) At the time of my death, should there not be enough available money on hand to defray my burial expenses, then each of my said children shall be chargeable with their pro rata part of same, and shall be held as a charge against them under this will.

Fourth. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, W. W. Roberson, and my daughter, Tabitha L. Danversport, my lawful executors, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and Testament, with all hand, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Willie Roberson, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 8th, day of June, 1928.

Willie Roberson (Seal)
