Know All Men By These Presents; That I Abram Satchwell of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind and memory, Thank God; do hereby make and declare this my Last Will and Testament, in manner and form as follows, viz:

Item 1. I desire all my just debts paid to whomsoever due out of my personal property if sufficient, but if not, that enough of my real estate be sold to do so. Together with my burial expenses including modest tomb-stone and the residue of my estate to be inherited by my next of kin. I hereby appoint my trusty friend Melvin Dickerson my sole executor without bond to collect all amounts that may be due me, and to execute this my said will.

In Testimony Whereof I hereby sign my name, Sept. 12th, 1922.

Abram Satchwell (Seal)

Witness at his request and in his presence.

Washington County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Abram Satchwell, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Melvin Dickerson, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Abram Satchwell by the oath and examination of J. H. Speight and Joseph L. Hordley, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Abram Satchwell; that the said

Abram Satchwell, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 12th day of Sept. 1922.

And this deponent further saith that the said Abram Satchwell, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament and this deponent did then and there subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will, as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Abram Satchwell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say, not.
