

of W. D. Davenport that D. F. Ambrose, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said W. D. Davenport that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said D. F. Ambrose, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said D. F. Ambrose, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said D. F. Ambrose.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said W. L. Freeman, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Ethel Lee Silterson, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by George H. Silterson, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Ethel Lee Silterson by the oath and examination of W. G. Darden, E. H. Livinsan & J. T. Nail, the subscribing witnesses, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Ethel Lee Silterson; that the said Ethel Lee Silterson, in the presence of the deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of June, 1915.

And this deponent further saith, That the said Ethel Lee Ellerson, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Ethel Lee Ellerson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
