

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, C. M. Snell, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. I give and devise to my beloved wife and son, Eva V. Snell and Charles M. Snell Jr., all of my property both real and personal of whatever kind and wherever the same may be found.

Second. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife my lawful executrix to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills & testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I, the said, C. M. Snell, do hereunto set my hand & seal, this 2nd day of March, 1912.

C. M. Snell, (Seal)

Washington County } In the Superior Court.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of C. M. Snell, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Eva V. Snell, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Eva V. Snell, that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said C. M. Snell after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: Carl L. Bailey, J. H. Reid and P. H. Brinkley, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. M. Snell, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said C. M. Snell, subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said C. M. Snell. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said C. M. Snell. It is therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said C. M. Snell and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 14th day of Oct., 1912.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary C. Lyons deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for N. C. Term by the commission of and at right of N. P. Ormsted, said county, by the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary C. Lyons by the oath and examination of Alice Ormsted and Lou Ella Slack the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for him self depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary C. Lyons: That the said Mary C. Lyons, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 14th day of August 1926.

And this Deponent further saith, That the said Mary C. Lyons the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary C. Lyons was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any constraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: and further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed this 22nd day of December, 1927, before me,
Alice Ormsted,
Lou Ella Slack,
Clerk Superior Court.
