

The Last Will and Testament of Larkin Smith,
 In the name of God, My Father, Amen.

To my children, Alexander Smith, Willis Smith, Arnelia Campbell, Alice Smith and Joseph Smith, I, while conscious of my actions and being of sound mind and memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void and null and testament heretofore made by me and disposing of my earthly possessions as follows:

(1). The house and lot (the homestead), on the East side of Madison Street, and on the Smiths end of same street, I give and devise to Alexander Smith, Arnelia Campbell and Alice Smith in the proportion of five twelfths, two twelfths and five twelfths respectively and no sale of the above mentioned property is to be made nor mortgage on the same to be given until the two girls (and Alice for herself and Alexander) agree to the same.

(2). The household furniture and fixtures are to remain in the possession of Alice Smith with the understanding that she is to care for Alexander Smith or to see that he is well provided for at all times.

(3). The lot on the West side of Madison Street and on the Smiths end of said street I devise to Willis Smith, Arnelia Campbell and Joseph Smith their heirs and assigns. It is my will that no sale be made or mortgage given of the said lot or on the said lot until there has been an agreement reached between all parties herein interested in the same.

(4). I hereby appoint my beloved daughter Alice Smith administratrix of this my last will and testament and direct her to sell all of my personal property not heretofore mentioned, with the exception of my gold watch which I hereby give to my son Joseph Smith and my double barrel gun which I give to my grand son Augustus Moore, and keep the proceeds of said sale for the support of herself and brother Alexander Smith.

May peace, happiness, and prosperity prevail now, hereafter and forever, Amen.

This 20th day September, 1922.

Larkin ^{his} Smith.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Larkin Smith, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Alice Smith, the executrix therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Larkin Smith by the oath and examination of E. J. Hayes and Edward Spruill, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself, depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Larkin Smith; that the said Larkin Smith, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which was dated of the 20th day of September, 1922.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Larkin Smith, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did therefore subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Larkin Smith was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to his knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not

I, J. L. Hassell, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, out of the first money coming into his hands out of my estate, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all of my just debts.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, the home and lots on which we now reside, running through from Sixth Street to seventh street, containing lots to have and to hold during the term of her natural life. Then the said home and lots shall go to my brother H. E. Hassell, or his heirs.

Third. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, the store and lot including my office, situated on main Street, in full, simple,

Fourth. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, all of my chattel property of every description, and mining if any, also my charitable brother benefit, to handle as she sees fit.

Fifth. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Ida Hassell, my lawful executrix, without bond, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause hereof, I hereby revoke and declare all other wills and testaments void made by me heretofore.

In witness whereof I the said J. L. Hassell, do hereby set my hand and seal this the... day of February 1933,

J. L. Hassell. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, and declared by the said J. L. Hassell to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other,
do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
