

A. M. Davenport was a nephew of the said S. P. Woodley and that they lived in close proximity to each other for a number of years; that your officers to truly believe and so aver that the signature of the said S. P. Woodley on the said paper writing hereto attached is in his own proper handwriting and truly believe and so aver that the signature of the said A. M. Davenport on the said paper writing hereto attached is in his own proper handwriting and that said signatures are genuine in all respects.

G. F. Woodley
S. P. Woodley,

Sworn to and subscribed before me,
This the 10th day of April, 1933,

C. D. Watkinson,

Clerk Superior Court,

North Carolina, Washington County,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Daniel Lelifore, deceased, is exhibited for probate in your County and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of S. P. Woodley and G. F. Woodley that S. P. Woodley and A. M. Davenport, subscribing witnesses to said will are both dead and have been dead for a number of years and that said testator, Daniel Lelifore, has also been dead for a number of years; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said S. P. Woodley and G. F. Woodley that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said S. P. Woodley and the said A. M. Davenport, having frequently seen their wills, and that the name of the said S. P. Woodley subscribed to the said paper writing is in the proper handwriting of the said S. P. Woodley and that the name of the said A. M. Davenport subscribed to the said paper writing is in the proper handwriting of the said A. M. Davenport; it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said S. P. Woodley and the said G. F. Woodley that they are not interested, in any way, in the said paper writing.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Daniel Lelifore and the same is ordered to be filed and recorded as such.

This the 10th day of April, 1933,

C. D. Watkinson,

Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, John H. Speight of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound and disposing mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

Item One, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary G. Speight all the personal property of which I may die possessed, of each and every kind and wherever situated, including all sums due to me on account or otherwise.

Item Two, I give and devise to my beloved wife, Mary G. Speight, and her heirs, in fee simple, all real estate of which I may die possessed or interest in same, wherever situated.

Item Three, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Mary G. Speight, my lawful executrix to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, to serve in such capacity, without bond. I do hereby revoke and declare utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said John H. Speight, do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 6th day of February, 1928.

John H. Speight. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said John H. Speight to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

J. F. Leary,

R. R. Roper,

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court,
Washington County. } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John H. Speight, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Mary G. Speight, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said John H. Speight is proved by the oath and examination of J. F. Leary and R. R. Roper, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of John H. Speight; that the said John H. Speight, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 6th day of February, 1928.

And the deponent further saith that the said John H. Speight, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said John H. Speight was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say, wit,

J. F. Leary,
R. R. Roper

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 30th day of May, 1933, before me,

C. D. W. Tansbourn

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,
Washington County, } In the Superior Court

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of John H. Speight, deceased, and the same, with the foregoing examinations and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 30th day of May, 1933.

C. D. W. Tansbourn

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,

Marlin County,

I, R. J. Peul, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind and memory, but realizing the uncertainty of human life, do make this my last Will and Testament.

1. I desire that my executrix, hereinafter named, arrange for my funeral, as shall suit her wishes, and pay the expenses of the same, together with all my just debts as soon as she can conveniently do so.

2. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Sadie Peul, all of my estate of every kind and description real, personal and mixed, for and during her natural life, and at her death, it is my will and desire that all of my said estate be equally divided among all of my children, after deducting the amounts advanced for the education of my older children, if I should die before giving my younger children the same training.

3. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said beloved wife, Sadie Peul, sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament, to execute my estate without bond.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 5th day of March, 1917.

R. J. Peul (Seal)

North Carolina

Washington County, }

Sadie F. Peul, first being duly sworn, deposes and says that she found the paper writing offered for probate as the last Will and Testament of R. J. Peul among the valuable papers and effects of the said R. J. Peul, after his death. That she found same in his safe among his books of trust, notes, insurance policies and other valuable papers. That he was a resident of Marlin County and that Sadie F. Peul an interested party is Clerk of Court of Marlin County.

Sadie F. Peul,

Sworn to and subscribed before me,

this the 31 day of July, 1933.

C. D. W. Tansbourn

Clerk of the Superior Court.
