

Abram Satchwell, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 12th day of Sept. 1922.

And this deponent further saith that the said Abram Satchwell, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament and this deponent did then and there subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will, as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Abram Satchwell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say, not.

I, Mack Sutton, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but the realizing the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this to be my last will and testament and hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments heretofore made by me.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my brother Richard Sutton and my sister Ethel Jones all my rights, titles, interest and share into the lands formerly owned by my father, Mack Sutton, the same being in Washington County and bounded by the lands of J. C. Lister, Edward Saunders and Albert Luge. This however is given subject to life estate of my mother, Sarah Sutton.

(2).

I give and bequeath all other property of every description and wherever found to my brother Richard Sutton and to my sister Ethel Jones. All intimations made prior to my signature.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of November, 1922.

Mack Sutton, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Mack Sutton to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
