Will of Rena A. Jackson

I will my undivided interest in twenty acres of land more or less to Percy Reams, at my death in which he is to have and hold. This is my final will.

Rena A. Jackson,

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court,
Washington County, }

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of Rena A. Jackson deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Percy Reams, the devisee therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Percy Reams that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Rena A. Jackson after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: J. R. Latham, Lammie Boyal and Gerlie Knight that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Rena A. Jackson, having often seen her write, and truly believe that the name of the said Rena A. Jackson subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof is in the handwriting of the said Rena A. Jackson. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Rena A. Jackson.
