

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Helen H. Tarkenton, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my Last Will and Testament:

First. My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give me body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my son, C. S. Tarkenton, $125.00 to be paid in cash.

Third. I give and devise to my daughter, Callie H. Tarkenton, $250.00 to be paid in cash.

Fourth. I give and devise to my daughter, Eleanor C. Tarkenton, $100.00 to be paid in cash.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Callie H. Tarkenton, and Eleanor C. Tarkenton, the home place on which I now reside, with all my personal property, money and notes which I may be possessed of, to be theirs, share and share alike, during their natural lives or maidenhood, after my debts and bequests made in former items, Nos. 2, 3, and 4 have been paid.

Sixth. At the death or marriage of my said daughter, above named, it is my will and desire that the premises and all other estate, real and personal, be sold and the proceeds equally divided between my children, viz: C. S. Tarkenton, Callie H. Tarkenton, Eleanor C. Tarkenton, H. H. Tarkenton, Samuel P. Tarkenton and Annie P. Clayton, should they be living, and if any of them should be dead, then the share of such one or more dead to be divided between the children of such.

Seventh. It is my will and desire that when premises are sold that it be sold to one of my said children, if possible.

Eighth. I hereby constitute and appoint my trusted son, C. S. Tarkenton, my lawful executor in all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof—hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Helen H. Tarkenton, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 27 day of Jan., 1915.

Helen H. Tarkenton, (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Helen H. Tarkenton to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, (and in the presence of each other,) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Helen H. Tarkenton, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by C. S. Tarkenton, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Helen H. Tarkenton by the oath and examination of Geo. H. Harris and C. V. White, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Helen H. Tarkenton, that the said Helen H. Tarkenton, in the presence of the deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of Jan., 1915.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said Helen H. Tarkenton the testatrix aforesaid, died, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Helen F. Tarverton was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Personally sworn and subscribed, this 1st day of June, 1916, before me.

The last Will and Testament of Josiah Collins, the Elder, of the town of Edenton, State of North Carolina.

I, Josiah Collins, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind (blessed be Almighty God for the same) do make and publish my last Will and Testament in manner following, to-wit, - First: It is my Will and Desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executors hereinafter named.

Secondly; - I Will and Desire that the sum of Three Hundred Dollars annually, be paid by my Executors to such person or persons as they shall appoint Trustee or Trustees, for the purpose of applying the same to the sole and separate use of my daughter, Elizabeth Cook, at present residing in Linnist, Somersetshire, (England) free from the control of her husband. The said sum to be thus paid annually during the natural life of the said Elizabeth Cook.

Thirdly; - It is my Will and Desire that the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, annually be paid by my Executors to such person or persons as they shall appoint Trustee or Trustees, for the purpose of applying the same to the support and education of each of the five children of my said daughter Elizabeth Cook, that is to say, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars for each of the said children annually until such child die or arrive, if a daughter, at the age of eighteen years, or if a son, at the age of twenty-one years.

Fourthly; - I give and bequeath to the five children of my daughter Elizabeth Cook, the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars, to be paid by my Executors to the said children, share and share alike, when they severally attain, the daughters the age of eighteen years, and the sons the age of twenty-one years. And if either of the said children shall die before attaining
