

My will

North Carolina Washington County.

Upon the proofs, it is considered and adjudged by the court that the said paper writing and every part thereof, it is the last will and testament of the said N. W. Ambrose, and the same, with the proofs and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed. This the 23rd day of October, 1928.

C. V. W. Cuslow.

Clark Superior Court.

North Carolina Washington County

I, Windsor Towl of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First: My executors hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first money which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my beloved wife Maggie Towl, the house and lot where we now reside, on west side of Wilson street, in the town of Plymouth, it being a lot of land 50x200 feet, fronting on said street and bounded on South by A. L. Towl, on north by W. H. Pittiford and on west by a lane in fee forever.

Third: I give and bequeath to my said wife any other real estate I may die possessed of, together with all chattel property, or other personal property I should own at the time of my death, to use or dispose of as she may see proper.

Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Maggie Towl, my lawful executrix to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof -- freely making and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

On witness whereof, I, the said Windsor Towl, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 16th day of February, 1925.

Windsor Towl. ^(Signature) _(Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Windsor Towl, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other), do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Washington County } On the Superior court, before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Windsor Towl, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Maggie Towl, the executrix as therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Windsor Towl, is proved by the oath and examination of Willie Mc Nair and J. H. Mc Nair, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say and each for him self deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Windsor Towl, that the said Windsor Towl, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of the said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16th day of February 1925. And this deponent further saith that the said Windsor Towl, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid before the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thenupon subscribe his name at the end of the said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And his deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Windsor Towl, was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will,

and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
