

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, A. G. Walker of the aforesaid County and State do hereby make this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void any and all other wills herebefore made by me.

1. I give to my son Dr. H. D. Walker my watch and chain.
2. I give to my son Harry G. Walker, a set of Haviland China, a set of Community silver and one victrola and records, all of which is now in my residence at Greenswell, N. C.
3. I hereby give, bequeath and devise all the rest and residue of my property, whether real, personal or mixed, of every kind and description and wherever it may be situated or located to my children, Mrs. Ida A. Phelps, Dr. H. D. Walker, Mrs. Annie H. Bachman, Mrs. Louie Grandy and my daughter-in-law Mrs. Rena H. Walker (wife of Harry G. Walker) equally, share and share alike.

4. I hereby nominate and appoint my four children above named and my daughter-in-law above named as executors of this my Last Will and Testament to execute the same according to the true intent and meaning thereof, without bond.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said A. G. Walker, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 16th day of August, 1924.

A. G. Walker, (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the said A. G. Walker as and for his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as attesting witnesses hereunto.

H. T. Jackson
G. B. Combs.

North Carolina,
Washington County.

In the matter of the Will of A. G. Walker, deceased.

The paper-writing here attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of A. G. Walker, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Washington County, North Carolina, by Mrs. Ida A. Phelps, Dr. H. D. Walker, Mrs. Annie H.

In the Superior Court,
Before the Clerk.

Bachman, Mrs. Louie Grandy and Mrs. Rena H. Walker, the executors therein named, and upon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of G. B. Combs, one of the subscribing witnesses hereunto, and of J. L. Phelps, as follows:

North Carolina, Washington County.

G. B. Combs, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of A. G. Walker, and that he saw A. G. Walker execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said A. G. Walker, deceased; and that at the time of its execution said A. G. Walker was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory. Affiant further swears that H. T. Jackson, the other subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said H. T. Jackson is now dead,
G. B. Combs.

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
this 5th day of August, 1931.

C. W. Turnbow,

Clerk of the Superior Court, of Washington County.

North Carolina, Washington County.

J. L. Phelps being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of H. T. Jackson, one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper-writing purporting to be the will of A. G. Walker, deceased, which is hereunto attached, dated August 16th, 1924, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said H. T. Jackson, subscribed as a witness to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said H. T. Jackson; and affiant further swears that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of A. G. Walker, deceased, whose will the attached paper-writing, dated the 16th day of August, 1924, purports to be, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said A. G. Walker subscribed to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said A. G. Walker, that said H. T. Jackson is now dead,
J. L. Phelps

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
this 5th day of August, 1931.

C. W. Tenslow
Clerk of the Superior Court of
Washington County.

And therefore it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of U. G. Walker, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate be recorded and filed.

This 5th day of August, 1931.

C. W. Tenslow
Clerk of the Superior Court of
Washington County.

North Carolina, Washington County.

Know all men by these presents; That I, Juanita Wiggles, of the State and County aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring utterly null, void and of no effect any and all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.

Item First: My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial agreeable to the wishes of my friends and relatives and shall provide at my grave a suitable monument and shall pay the cost and expenses of the same out of the first money coming into his hands belonging to my estate. My executor shall also pay all of my just debts.

Item Second: I give, devise and bequeath to Deldce Norman, wife of Wiley C. Norman, for and during the term of her natural life, with remainder in fee simple to his son Thomas Norman, that certain house and lot in the town of Poplar, North Carolina, now occupied by me as a residence together with all buildings and improvements on the same; also two tenant houses together with the lots situated back of the house where I now live and adjoining my home lot and the M. E. Church's property. I also give and bequeath to the said Deldce Norman all of my household and kitchen furniture of every kind and description. I also give my automobile to the said Thomas Norman.

Item Third: I give, devise and bequeath to Juanita Downing, daughter of Rodger Downing, in fee simple the house and lot in the town of Poplar, North Carolina, where Wiley C. Norman and wife now reside. This property to go to the said Juanita Downing in fee simple as aforesaid.

Item Fourth: During my lifetime I sold, or agreed to sell, a tract of land to Richard Watson for the price of Fifteen Hundred Dollars. In view of present conditions I wish to reduce the purchase price of this property from Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars to Twelve Hundred ($1200.00) Dollars and I hereby direct my executor hereinafter named not to require the said Richard Watson to pay more for said property than a total purchase price of Twelve Hundred ($1200.00) Dollars and upon payment of this amount the said Richard Watson shall have
