

Seatie Armistead by the oath and examination of J. Hyman & Saml Higgins, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself, deposed and said, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Seatie Armistead; that the said Seatie Armistead, in the presence of the deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of July, 1912.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Seatie Armistead the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will and Testament, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Seatie Armistead was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Swearfully sworn and subscribed, this 1st day of Jan'y, 1921 before me

I, A. H. Walker, of the aforesaid County and state being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament and hereby revoking all wills and testaments heretofore made by me:

1st My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends and pay for same out of the first moneys coming into his hands.

2nd I give to my beloved wife, Minnie A. Walker, my home place to include 17 1/2 acres of land during her widowhood together with sufficient farming utensils to cultivate same and also my driving horse and buggy.

3rd At the death or remarriage of my wife, Minnie A. Walker, I give and devise in fee simple to my youngest daughter, Rebecca J. Walker, the 17 1/2 acres given in section 2 of my will to my wife, Minnie A. Walker beginning on the South end of my farm and the line running East and West.

4th I give and devise to my daughter, Martha J. Walker 17 1/2 acres of land in fee simple to be allotted North of the land given to Josephine F. Walker.

5th I give to my daughter Emma L. Walker 17 1/2 acres of land in fee simple to be allotted North of that given to Martha J. Walker.

6th I give and devise to my daughter Victoria D. Walker 17 1/2 acres of land in fee simple to be allotted North of that given to Emma L. Walker.

7th I give and devise to my daughter Georgianna A. Walker 17 1/2 acres of land in fee simple to be allotted North of that given to Victoria D. Walker.

8th I give and devise to my daughter Mary F. Walker in fee simple 17 1/2 acres of land to be allotted North of that given to Georgianna A. Walker.

9th I give and devise to my son Theodore F. Walker 17 1/2 acres of my land in fee simple to be allotted North of that given to Mary F. Walker.

10th I give and devise to my son, David E. Walker 17 1/2 acres of land in fee simple to be allotted North of that given to my son Theodore F. Walker, but on this condition that he pay to my grand-son the sum of Four Hundred And Fifty Dollars with interest from the 15th day of January 1918 until paid and if the said David E. Walker fails to pay the said amount within two years after my death to my grandson John D. Staton then and in that event the land herein given to my son David E. Walker shall become the property of my grand-son John D. Staton in fee simile. The reason I make this disposition is because I find a note of my son David E. Walker for the said amount which he has not paid to me.

11th I give to my son Abraham H. Walker Jr, the sum of One Dollar to be paid to him by my executor hereinafter named. I make this provision because he had for himself four years of his labor before he had reached the age of twenty-one.

12th It is my will that all my personal property not heretofore disposed of be sold by my executor and from the proceeds pay my debts that I may owe at the time of my death and my surplus be divided equally among my children with the exception of my son, Abraham H. Walker Jr.

Now whereas I executed a mortgage to the Federal Land Bank of Columbia for the sum of Three Thousand Dollars to be paid as therein stipulated and as there is likely to be some amount due at the time of my death it is my will that those to whom I have given my real estate shall pay an equal amount in the liquidation of said debt. In case there shall be a failure to pay any amount by any of them more or less and in that event the land heretofore given them herein shall become the property of those who do keep up said said payments until the amount paid shall be refunded to them. I hereby appoint my son, Theodore Walker and S. H. McKeir executors of this my last will and testament.

This the 27th day of September 1919.

A. H. Walker

Signed, published and declared to be the last will and testament of A. H. Walker by him, in our presence and in the presence of each other who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our name as witnesses here to.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. H. Walker, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Theodore Walker and S. H. McKeir, the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said A. H. Walker by the oath and examination of P. H. Bell and D. A. Armistead, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. H. Walker; that the said A. H. Walker, in the presence of this Dependent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of September 1919.

And this Dependent further saith, that the said A. H. Walker the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this Dependent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this Dependent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the Dependent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said A. H. Walker was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this Dependent. And further this Dependent say not.
