

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court,
Washington County,

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of L. C. Klammer, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Ella L. Klammer, widow of L. C. Klammer; and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of Ella L. Klammer that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said L. C. Klammer after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: J. E. Reid, Dr. H. H. Ward and H. S. Davenport that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said L. C. Klammer, having often seen their write, and truly believe that the name of the said L. C. Klammer subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said L. C. Klammer. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said L. C. Klammer. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said L. C. Klammer, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me,
this 14th day of July, 1921,

C. W. Lunsford,
Clerk Superior Court.

Know all Men by these Presents;

That I, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Freeman, of the State and County aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following, that is to say:

1. My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to my station in life, and shall pay all funeral expenses out of the first money coming into his hands belonging to my estate, and shall cause my grave to be marked by a suitable monument of stone and shall pay for the same out of the first money coming into his hands belonging to my estate as aforesaid.

2. My executor hereinafter named shall pay all of my just debts which may be owing by me at the time of my death.

3. I give and bequeath to Miles T. Selterson, son of T. J. Selterson, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars which said legacy shall be paid by my executor hereinafter named as soon as my just debts and funeral expenses have been paid, as aforesaid and if it should become necessary to do so, in order to pay said legacy, my executor hereinafter named is authorized, empowered and directed to sell a sufficient amount of personal property owned by me at the time of my death for that purpose, but if there should be sufficient cash money in his hands after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, as aforesaid, then he shall pay said legacy out of any cash which he may have in his hands belonging to my estate.

4. I give and devise to Miles T. Selterson, son of T. J. Selterson, forty acres of land whereon he now resides bounded by the main road leading from Plymouth to Roper; bounded by the Garrett lane leading from the Plymouth and Roper road to the canal bridge said forty acres of land to be selected by him out of a
