

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, William Riley, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

1. My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes and desires of my friends and relatives, and shall pay all my just debts out of the first moneys which shall come into his hands belonging to my estate.

2. I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved nephew, William Riley Ballouay, all the property both real and personal, of which I may die possessed, and by this I mean to give, bequeath and devise to him, the said William Riley Ballouay, all my property including real estate wherever situated, money, household effect, notes, newspapers, bonds and choses in action, and property of whatsoever kind and description, to him and his heirs in full ample forever to his and their only use and behoof.

3. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved nephew, William Riley Ballouay, my true and lawful executor to this my last will and testament, to execute the same according to its true intent and meaning, hereby revoking and declaring null and void all other wills heretofore by me made.

In testimony whereof I, the said William Riley, have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this, the 21st day of January, 1932.

Wm. Riley (Seal)

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Riley, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by William Riley Ballouay, the executor herein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said William Riley is found by the oath and examination of O.D. Hatfield and H.H. Harrell, M.D., the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, do deposes and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of William Riley, that the said William Riley, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 21st day of January, 1932.

And the deponent further saith that the said William Riley, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said William Riley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

O.D. Hatfield.
