I, C. W. Woodley of the above state & County, being of sound mind & memory, praise be to God for the same, do hereby make this my last will and testament in manner and form following:

1st - I wish my body to be buried in a decent manner suitable to the wishes of my family & friends.
2nd I give to my daughter Melena Davenport wife of Alexander Davenport during her natural life & then to her son Abram all that portion of land lying within the following boundaries. Beginning in a forked pine tree of Alexander Davenport thence running down the road to a water out thence running a straight course parallel with the Mountain Canal to the Sangley line & this is to include all that portion of my land laying on the Eastward side of said line.

3rd - I give to my Grand son William Alexander Davenport all that piece of land between the grave yard & my fence which lies between the road leading to Alexander Davenport & a road leading from my back gate to the woods.

4th And all the rest of my land to the west of the road & line specified in # 2 & 3 to my daughter Penny C. Clifton & all of my chattel & property except what is in # 4.

5th I give to my Grand son William Alexander Davenport my Bedstead & pictures including Bedstead & bed also the covering that belongs with it.

6th - After my burial expenses and other debts are paid I want what money I have on hand to be equally divided among my three children viz W. H. Woodley Penny C. Clifton and Melena A. Davenport.

I leave this will to be carried out by my children as I have stated above.

Witness my hand & seal this the 2nd day of May, 1916

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament and Codicil of C. W. Woodley, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court of said County by Alexander Davenport, mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said C. W. Woodley in the oath and examination of W. H. Harrison & W. D. Peal, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament and Codicil of C. W. Woodley; that the said C. W. Woodley, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2nd day of May 1916.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said C. W. Woodley the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and Codicil and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will and Codicil as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said Testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said Testator subscribed his name to the said last will and Codicil as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said C. W. Woodley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under ^{any} restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament and Codicil, C. W. Woodley deceased. Let said Will and Codicil together with the probate, be recorded and filed. This 6th day of May 1918.

C. V. W. Cuslon, Clerk Superior Court.

By these presents greetings to all men, that they may know this to be my last will and testament, That I hereby give and bequeath to my wife Caroline Virginia Campbell all personal real estate, and expectation of proceeds of real estate of whatever kind, to be here at my death, to use and do with as she sees best.

And I furthermore will to my wife Caroline Virginia Campbell the policies of all Insurance I have on my life

I do hereby state that I am now in good health, and in my right mind, and that if any of my heirs contest this will, it is my last wish they may be debarred from having any part thereof.

Thanking God for all of his mercies.
I will further state that if the estate now in Court is not finally settled before my death that when settlement is made by Mr. Paul Garrett that he will pay all money from such settlement in case of my death over to my wife Caroline Virginia Campbell to be use as she sees best. and in no settlement shall she be required to give a bond to account for any money she may receive from my estate, she has been a true and faithful wife to me and I can trust her more than any one else to look after our Children.
God is my witness that this is my last wish.
