A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of T. S. Woodley, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Joe Woodley and Mrs. M. A. Ambrose, the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said T. S. Woodley by the oath and examination of R. S. Davenport, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say; that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of T. S. Woodley; that the said T. S. Woodley, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2d day of February, 1915.

And this Deponent further saith, That the said T. S. Woodley, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the same paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, the said T. S. Woodley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of T. S. Woodley deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Joe Woodley + Mrs. M. A. Ambrose the executors therein named; and it is there proved by the oath and examination of Bessie White that D. W. Barnes one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said Bessie White, that she is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said D. W. Barnes having often seen him write, and that the name of the said D. W. Barnes subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said D. W. Barnes. It is therefore considered by the court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said T. S. Woodley, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
