

I, A. G. Rowland being of sound mind and memory, but weak and feeble in health and considering the uncertainty of this frail life, I make and declare this to be my last will and testament.

First recommending my soul to God from which it came that is to say, first that my expenses together with all my just debts be paid out of my personal and real estate, first disposing of all of my personal estate, except one young female cow, the only one I now own, which I give & bequeath to Rebecca Patterson.

Second I give and bequeath to my sister Catharine Hewitt all my real and personal property, after my debts is paid real estate consisting of one tract of land purchased from W. W. Patterson.

Third I appoint and constitute my friend W. W. Patterson my Executor to execute this my will giving power to collect any and all debts due me &c. Given under my hand and seal This 14th day of July A.D. 1882.
