In the Superior Court.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of A. Harrison deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Eliza Harrison, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said A. Harrison by the oath and examination of R. C. Puryear and W. L. Kelly, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of A. Harrison, that the said A. Harrison in the presence of this deponent subscribe his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16 day of February 1894.

And the deponent further saith, that he said A. Harrison, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said A. Harrison was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
