purporting to be the last will and testament of said Brown and that he saw Dock Brown execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said Dock Brown deceased; and at the time of its execution said Dock Brown was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory; affiant further swears that P.C. Williamson, subscriber, subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said P.C. Williamson is now dead.

Probate

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court Yadkin County }

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of A.P. Smitherman deceased, exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Mr. Smitherman the testator therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said A.P. Smitherman by the oath and examination of JM Whittington and J.H. Reece the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deponeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of A.P. Smitherman that the said A.P. Smitherman in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of April 1911. And the Deponent further saith, that the said A.P. Smitherman the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said A.P. Smitherman was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further this deponent say not.
