Bettie Brown's Will

North Carolina
 Yadkin County

I Bettie Brown of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament First, My executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all my funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys that may come into her hands belonging to my estate Second, I bequeath and bequeath to my beloved sister Emeline Kinney all my personal property of every kind and description and wherever located.
 Third I give and devise to my beloved sister Emeline Kinney, all my real property wherever located. Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved sister Emeline Kinney, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all wills and testaments by me heretofore made In Witness whereof I the said Bettie Brown do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 27th day of October, 1913.

Bettie Brown Esq

Signed sealed, published and declared by the said Bettie Brown to be her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as Witnesses to this this 27th day of Oct. 1913.
 Witnesses J. H. Reese and J. T. Denbow

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court
 a paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of Bettie Brown deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Caroline Kinney the executing therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Bettie Brown by the oath and examination of J. H. Reece and J. T. Benbow the subscribing witnesses thereto, who each being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Bettie Brown; that the said Bettie Brown in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of October 1913.
 And this deponent further saith, that the said Bettie Brown the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Bettie Brown was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say nat.

Generally Sworn and subscribed, this 8th day of May 1917, before me.
