Calum E Share will

North Carolina { Last will and testament of Yadkin County } Calum E Share

I Calum E Share of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament:

- First, My Executors, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.
- Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Permilia C Share the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) in addition to her year's allowance, as is provided by law, to be paid her by my executor hereinafter named.
- Third, I give and devise to my beloved wife Permilia C Share, and my daughter Sarah C Share jointly during their lives, and during the life of each of them that is to say, the longest liver shall have the whole of the said one hundred acres of land until her death. said lands shall include the dwelling house and out houses the house embracing said one hundred acres of land, to be run and established as here directed by my said wife, Permela C. Share and my daughter Sarah C. Share (Fourth) I give and devise to my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, all my lands in Guilford County, North Carolina, subject however to the life estate of my beloved wife Permela C. Share and daughter, Sarah C. Share, as set out in paragraph Third of this my last will and Testament, in one hundred acres of land devised to them by me in said paragraph. (Fifth) It is my will that the said lands devised by me to my said two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, in paragraph Fourth of this my last will and Testament, be divided equally in value between my said two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share. Henry F. Share to have that part lying next to his lands and John B. Share to have that part lying next to his lands, and that my son John B. Share is to have all of the 12 acre tract which is known as the Frank Hall Tract of land this would make my said John B. Share's part in the same tract still much less, that is, the value of the 12 acre tract less for him in the same tract. I hereby will and direct that all said lands including the remainder in the one hundred acre tract celled and devised by me to my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, be appraised and valued by three disinterested men, to be selected by my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, and the amount so determined by them to be charged up against my two sons Henry F. Share and John B. Share, in the settlement of my estate. Sixth I will and direct that the interest which by me to my daughter, Sarah C. Share, in the one hundred acres of land, set out in Paragraph Third of this my last will and Testament, be appraised and valued by the same three men when selected by my two sons Henry F. Share and John B. Share, and the amount so determined to be charged up against my said daughter, Sarah C. Share, in the settlement of my estate, but in valuing the interest of my said daughter, Sarah C. Share, in the said one hundred acres of land, I hereby direct that none of the buildings thereon be considered.

Seventh I give and bequeath to my sons, I C. Share and Ellis E. Share, and to my daughter, Melinda Kenigar, each an amount in money equal to the value of the lands devised by me to each of my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, the same to be paid to them by my Executors, hereinafter named. I also give and bequeath to my daughter, Sarah C. Share, an amount in money to make her share or interest in my estate equal to the value of the lands devised by me to each of my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, after valuing her life estate in the one hundred acres of land Eighth. If there should not be sufficient money in the hands of my Executors, hereinafter named, after carrying out the provisions as set forth in this my last will and Testament, then each of my said two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, shall pay to each of my two sons, I C. Share and Ellis E. Share, and to my two daughters Melinda Kenigar and Sarah C. Share, each an amount such as will make each of them share in my estate equal in value to each of my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share. Ninth. If there should be more than enough money in the hands of my Executors, hereinafter named, to carry out the provisions set forth in Paragraph "Seven" of this my last will and Testament I give and bequeath all said moneys still remaining in the hands of my said Executors hereinafter named, to each of my said children, Henry F. Share, John B. Share, I C. Share, Sarah C. Share

Malinda Remigar, Ellis & Share to them and their heirs Share and Share alike.

Tenth: I hereby will and direct that my Executors hereinafter named, shall sell all the remainder of my property of every kind and description and wherever located, take in charge all moneys on hand at the time of my death, collect all moneys on deposit in Banks and collect all moneys due me from all sources whatever and pay said moneys out as I have called and directed in the foregoing paragraphs of this my last will and Testament.

Eleventh: I hereby constitute and appoint my two sons, Henry F. Share and John B. Share, my lawful Executors to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said Calvin E. Share, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 23rd day of September, 1913.

Calvin E. Share Esq.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Calvin E. Share to be his last will & Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
