A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Clae Dalton, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, and the due execution thereof by the said Clae Dalton by the oath and examination of J. W. Howell & C. E. Hartman, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Clae Dalton; that the said Clae Dalton, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16 day of Oct. 1919.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Clae Dalton the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents' subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said Cleo Dalton was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not-
