

This deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as a record and which bears date of the 9th day of July 1897. And the deponent further saith, that the said Ollie R. Willyard the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said last will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Ollie R. Willyard was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information, belief of this deponent, and further this deponent says not generally sworn and subscribed.
