I, R. H. Hunt being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and declare this to be my last will and Testament as follows, to wit: It is my will and desire that my executors hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations - and shall pay my funeral expenses, including a suitable tomb stone, together with all of my just debts, out of the first monies coming into their hands as a part of my estate.

It is my will and desire, that in the event of my death before the present crop is made and gathered, that my contract and arrangements for cropping for this year be carried out by my executors, and that my stock & feed for same, and agricultural machinery & tools, used on the farm, be not sold till all the crops are gathered and divided - and as soon as practicable thereafter to advertise & sell at public sale all my personal property for cash, collect all debts due me, and pay off my just debts, and if there should be any surplus of my personal estate after payment of my debts and costs of Administration, I give and bequeath said surplus amount whatever it may be to my nephew William Martin -

But in the event that the proceeds of my personal estate are not sufficient to pay my debts and costs of Administration, then in that case my executors shall have charge of all my lands, and shall rent out the same till the rents will pay off said debts and costs.

It is my will that the note which I held against my deceased sister, Emma Nicholson, be not collected, and either destroyed or given up to her children by my executors.

I give and devise to my sister Mary Malinda Martin for and during her natural life, a part of what is known as the Swat tract of land, containing about ninety acres more or less, adjoining the lands of said Mary Malinda Martin, it being the same which I received from my father, Pleasant Hunt, in the division of his lands among his children, and at her death, then to her children, Walter Martin, William Martin, Nannie Butler wife of James Butler, Emma Martin, Martha Martin and Bessie Martin in fee simple forever, share and share alike.
