

North Carolina }
Yadkin County } S. S. In The Superior Court
It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of James Harrison deceased.
Let said Will, together with the probate be recorded and filed.

This 20 day of Aug. 1919.

Clerk Superior Court

Elizabeth and J. N. Barron Will

Yadkin County }

We, Elizabeth C. Barron and husband J. N.
Barron of the aforesaid County and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of our earthly existence, make and declare this our last will and testament First. Our Executor hereinafter named, shall give our bodies a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of our friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses, together with all our just debts, and of the just moneys which may come into his hands belonging to our Estate.

Second. We give and devise to our youngest son Jas. R. Barron, the tract of land on which we now live, known as the homeplace containing (84) Eighty four acres more or less.
To have and to hold to him and his heirs forever also the tract of land known as the Sam Denny place, containing (60) ten acres more or less to have and to hold to him, his heirs and assigns forever.

Third. We give and devise to our son Jasper N.
Barron (50) fifty acres of land to be taken off of the west side of tract known as the Jesse Denny place, to have and to hold to him and his heirs forever.

Fourth. We give and devise the balance of our real Estate to our two sons, John F. Barron and Jas. R. Barron to be equally divided between them. To have and to hold to them their heirs and assigns forever.

Fifth. We give to our daughters Laura A. Cartwright and Alice A. Smith (30) One hundred and thirty dollars each to be paid equally by our three sons out of their share of our real estate within two years after the survivors death as hereinafter stated.

Sixth. We further give to our two daughters Laura A. Cartwright and Alice A. Smith ($20<sup>00</sup>) twenty dollars each to be paid out of our Estate by our Executor hereinafter named, (which sum, together with the advancements they have had from us will make a fair portion according to the value of our Estate, both personal and real.)

Seventh. We direct that this will shall not take effect until each of us shall have departed this life.

Eighth. We hereby constitute and appoint our youngest son Jas. R. Barron our lawful Executor to all intents and purposes to execute this our last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made In witness whereof we, the said Elizabeth C. Barron and husband J. N. Barron, do hereunto set our hand and seal.

This 7th day of February 1907
 Elizabeth C. Barron (Seal)
 J. N. Barron (Seal)
 Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Elizabeth C. Barron and husband J. N. Barron to be their last will and testament in the presence of us, who at their request and in their presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

C. W. Gough
 G. V. Johnson.

Probate

State of North Carolina In the Superior Court Yaddo County

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth C. Barron, J. N. Barron deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J. F. Barron one of the Deceaseds therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Elizabeth C. Barron & J. N. Barron by the oath and examination of C. W. Gough, & G. V. Johnson, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness thereto to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth C. Barron & J. N. Barron; that the said C. W. Gough & G. V. Johnson, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed & name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 7 day of Feb- 1907.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Elizabeth C. Barron & J. N. Barron the testators aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing their names as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by them and exhibited to be their last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator.

And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed their names to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing their names as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Elizabeth C. Barron & J. N. Barron was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed this, 1 day of Jan-1920 before me.

J. L. Crater
 Clerk Superior Court
