Probate of George W. Randleman's will
State of North Carolina } Under the Superior Court
Fadkin County

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of George W. Randleman deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of said County by J. H. Bowman, the executor therein named mentioned and the execution thereof by the said George W. Randleman, by the oath and examination of J. H. Bowman & Mrs. Bowman, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose & say, each each for himself deposes and saith that they are subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of George W. Randleman and the said George W. Randleman in the presence of these deponents subscribe their names at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as afore said, and bore date of the 31st day of Dec. 1913
And the deponent further saith that the said Geo. W. Randleman the testator afore said, did at the time of subscribing his name as afore said, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibit to be his last will and testament, and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and these deponents further oath that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as afore said and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as an attesting witness thereto as afore said, the said George W. Randleman was of sound mind and memory of full age to make a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of these deponents, and further these deponents depose & say
