A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of H. V. Long, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by C. S. Royall the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said H. V. Long by the oath and examination of M. W. Mackie & R. C. Puryear, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of H. V. Long; that the said H. V. Long, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 14 day of April 1913.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said H. V.
Long the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and is exhibited to be the last will and testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said H. V. Long was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent: and further these deponents do not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,
