Probate
State of North Carolina } Yadkin County } ss. In the Superior Court

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Marshall deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by W. A. Gentry the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Henry Marshall by the oath and examination of L. J. Ray one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Henry Marshall that the said Henry Marshall in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 18 day of Jan'y 1898. And the Deponent further saith that the said Henry Marshall the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as deponent declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Henry Marshall was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further this deponent says not

North Carolina } In the Superior Court Yadkin County } Before the Clerk
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Marshall, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by W. A. Gentry the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of J. F. George and J. J. Martin that J. S. Claywell, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead; that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. S. Claywell having often seen him write and that the name of the said J. S. Claywell subscribed as a witness to the said will is in the hand writing of the said J. S. Claywell and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said J. F. George and J. J. Martin that they are well acquainted with the hand writing of Henry Marshall the testator therein named having often seen him write. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Henry Marshall and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed, this 19 day of Feb. 1906.
