Probate

State of North Carolina } In the superior Court
Graham County }
A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of H.W. Fleming, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by L.C. Fleming, and the due execution thereof by the said H.W. Fleming by the oath and examination of J.J. Fleming and W.C. Stallings, the subscribing witness thereto; who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of H.W. Fleming, that the said H.W. Fleming in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 1st day of June, 1903.

And the deponent further saith, that the said H.W. Fleming, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, the said H.W. Fleming was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not unduly restrained, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent saith not.

W.C. Stallings.

J.J. Fleming.

Sworn and subscribed,
this 12 day of Sept. 1903, before me.

W.A. Hall, Clerk
Superior Court.

North Carolina }
