Henry Wagoner's Will

In the name of God Amen;

I Henry Wagoner of the County of Yadkin and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory and Considering the uncertainty of life and the Certainty of death, do make declare and ordain this to be my last will and testament, in the manner and form following: first after a decent burial and all my just debts are paid and discharged, I bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Mary Wagoner my home place on which I now live together with all my personal property during her natural life and at her death I give and bequeath to my Son R. M. Wagoner twenty five acres more or less off of the North-west Corner of the Cassstevens tract as surveyed and marked out by me. I give and bequeath to my daughter Nancyann Halscomb the remainder of all my lands, also one Corner Cephoard with pannel doors, I give and bequeath to R. M. Wagoner one Bureau and safe. Then all the personal property that I die in possession of I will and bequeath to my two Children R. M. Wagoner and Nancyann Halscomb to be equally divided, and lastly I do nominate constitute and appoint my trusty friend J. F. George my executor to this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all and every other will or wills heretofore made by me and do declare this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I the said Henry Wagoner have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 21st day of November A. D. 1891.

Henry Wagoner (Signature)

Signed delivered and published by the above named Henry Wagoner as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto

Probate

North Carolina }
Yadkin County }

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Wagoner deceased is exhibited for probate in open Court by J. F. George, the executor therein named and it is proved by the oath and examination of B. K. Brown that J. D. Halscomb, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said B. K. Brown that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. D. Halscomb, having often seen him write and that the name of the said J. D. Halscomb as witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said J. D. Halscomb. It is therefore Considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Henry Wagoner and the same is ordered recorded to be recorded and filed this Aug 3- 1906.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Wagoner deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J F George the executor therein mentioned, and to the execution thereof, by the said Henry Wagoner by the oath and examination of J F George the subscribing witness thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and in ch for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Henry Wagoner that the said Henry Wagoner in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 21st day of November 1891. And the Deponent further saith, that the said Henry Wagoner the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid the said Henry Wagoner was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.
