J. M. Jones Will

State of North Carolina

Yadkin County

This April 26 - 1906.

I J. M. Jones being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this life and the certainty of death do make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament. That is to say after paying all my just debts if any I will to my wife P. A. Jones all my personal property such as Hogs, Cows, Horses, mules, all provisions on hand at my death, all tools and mortgages, Wagon, Buggies, House hold, & kitchen furniture and in fact all other articles of personal property on hand including money on hand or on deposit at my death to do with as she may think best during her life and if any left at her death then to be sold and divided among my children. I will that my wife P. A. Jones shall have the rents and profits of all my real estate during the term of her natural life and no longer, she shall occupy rent and control my entire real estate including my interest in the Booneville Milling Co. property. I will that my wife P. A. Jones shall sell and convey at any time that she may think best my one half interest in store house & lot adjoining the mill property in Booneville, sale to be made either public or private as she may think best. I will that my wife P. A. Jones shall sell and convey at any time that she may think best.

My entire interest in my small property in Booneville both real and personal, sale to be made either public or private as she may think best the remainder of my real estate to remain unsold until after the death of my wife P. A. Jones then to be sold and proceeds divided among all my children.

I will that in case any of my children are dead and leave issue that issue to take the share of the parent. The intention and purpose of this will is to let my wife P. A. Jones have and control my entire estate both real and personal during the term of her natural life and not any thing to be interpreted with only by her consent while she may live. I constitute and appoint my wife P. A. Jones my Executor to execute this my last will and Testament Signed sealed in the presence of witnesses.
