Probate

State of North Carolina ss. In the Superior Yadkin County Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Harlin deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by John Long the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said James Harlin by the oath and examination of J. W. Howell B. F. Seatz, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Harlin; that the said James Harlin, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 22 day of March, 1919.

And this deponent further saith, that the said James Harlin the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing their names as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said James Harlin was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: and further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 30th day of Aug, 1919, before me, J. L. Clater

Elizabeth and J. N. Barron Will

North Carolina }
Yadkin County }

We, Elizabeth C. Barron and husband J. N.
Barron of the aforesaid County and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of our earthly existence, make and declare this our last will and testament First. Our Executor hereinafter named, shall give our bodies a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of our friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses, together with all our just debts, and of the just moneys which may come into his hands belonging to our Estate.

Second. We give and devise to our youngest son Jas. R. Barron, the tract of land on which we now live, known as the homeplace containing (84) Eighty four acres more or less.
To have and to hold to him and his heirs forever also the tract of land known as the Sam Denny place, containing (60) ten acres more or less to have and to hold to him, his heirs and assigns forever.

Third. We give and devise to our son Jasper N.
Barron (60) fifty acres of land to be taken off of the west side of tract known as the Jesse Denny place, to have and to hold to him and his heirs forever.

Fourth. We give and devise the balance of our real Estate to our two sons, John F. Barron and Jas. R. Barron to be equally divided between them. To have and to hold to them their heirs and assigns forever.

Fifth. We give to our daughters Laura A. Cartwright and Alice A. Smith (20) One hundred and thirty dollars each to be paid equally by our three sons out of their share of our real estate within two years after the survivors death as hereinafter stated.

Sixth. We further give to our two daughters Laura A. Cartwright and Alice A. Smith (20⁰⁰) twenty dollars each to be paid out of our Estate by our Executor hereinafter named, (which sum, together with the advancements they have had from us will make a fair portion according to the value of our Estate, both personal and real.)

Seventh. We direct that this will shall not take effect until each of us shall have departed this life.

Eighth. We hereby constitute and appoint our youngest son Jas. R. Barron our lawful Executor to all intents and purposes to execute this our last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void
