J. W. Brinkley Will

June 1st day 1913.

In the event of my death I bequeath every thing I own to Henry P. Brann.

J. W. Brinkley

Probate

North Carolina } In Superior Court
Yadkin County }

A paper writing without subscribing witness purporting to be the last will & Testament of J. W. Brinkley, which is exhibited for probate in open Court by Henry P. Brann the Decree and Legatee therein named; and it was thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Henry P. Brann that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. W. Brinkley, after his death. And it was further proved by the oath and examination of the Competent and Credible witnesses, to wit: P. D. Kiger, J. A. Brann & J. W. Brann that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. W. Brinkley having often seen him write and verify before them that the name of the said J. W. Brinkley, subscribed to said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof is in the handwriting of J. W. Brinkley and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last named witnesses that the said hand writing is generally known to the acquaintances of the said J. W. Brinkley. It is therefore Considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of the said J. W. Brinkley and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed. This March 7-1922.
