

He is a subscribing witness to the paper writing, now shown here purporting to be the last will and testament of James Shore, that the said James Shore in the presence of three deponents subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown in evidence and which bears date of the 15th day of Dec. 1888. And the deponents further state that the said James Shore the testator aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and three deponents each thereupon subscribed their names at the end of said will as in effecting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And they said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents, subscribing their names as in attesting witness thereto, the said James Shore was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponents, and further these deponents say not.

John T. Conrad Will

I, John T. Conrad, of Little River, Florida, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby rendering null and void former wills by me heretofore made. I First. I order and direct that my Executors herein after named, pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second. After the payment of such debts, and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath to my son, Alex. E. Conrad, all of the property real, personal and mixed of every kind and nature whatsoever which I dying above have or may hereafter possess or may be entitled to have then and forever.

Third. I do hereby make, constitute and appoint my son Alex. E. Conrad, sole Executor of this last will and testament, and as it is my wish and I do hereby request that he may not be compelled to give any bond or security, as such Executor.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this 2nd day of May A. D. 1893.

John T. Conrad. Test

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said testator John T. Conrad to be his last will and testament, in our presence, who, at his request have subscribed our names thereto as witnesses in his presence and in the presence of each other.

In Court of the County Judge, State of Florida.

Estate of } Dade County
John T. Conrad, deceased.

I the Honorable Richmond B. Gantier, Judge of said Court, the petitioner of Alex. E. Conrad, respectfully sheweth that he is a resident of Dade County, State of Florida, that on the second day of May, A.D. 1913, John T. Conrad, of Little River, in said Dade County, departed this life at Little River, leaving a last will and testament, duly signed and attested, as your petition shows, which he now presents to your Honor for probate, that said testator in said will nominated your petitioner, Alex. E. Conrad, executor thereof, that said decedent left property and effects as follows: 1 horse, 1 wagon, 1 cup, household furniture, also all my North Carolina, of the value approximately $5000.00. That said decedent left two surviving sons and three daughters, and your opponent, as son, as grand children, being children of a deceased son of said decedent, he only here sheweth that your petitioner resides at Little River, Fla. and is willing to accept and undertake the trust conferred to him in said will. Therefore your petitioner prays that the said will may be admitted to probate, and letters testamentary thereon may be issued to Alex. E. Conrad, after sworn hearing and proof, and that all other orders necessary may be made.

Alex. E. Conrad.
