

In Court of the County Judge, State of Florida.

Estate of } Dade County.
John T. Conrad, deceased.

By the County Judge of said County.

The said last will and testament having been duly established by the sworn testimony of J. E. DuPree, sworn scribe, and attesting witnesses thereto, as being the true last will and testament of the said John T. Conrad, deceased, and no objection being made to the probate thereof, and it appearing to the County Judge of said County by due proof that the said John T. Conrad, died on the second day of May, A. D. 1913. It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said last will and testament, bearing date May 2, - A. D. 1913, and attested by J. E. DuPree and J. A. Layton, as subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same a hereby admitted to probate according to law, as and for the true last will and testament of said John T. Conrad, deceased, and that the same with the proof thereof, be duly recorded in the Book of Wills and that letters testamentary be issued to Alex E. Conrad, as prayed. Given under my hand and seal, at Miami, in said County, the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1913.

Redmond B. Gentry, County Judge.

In Court of the County Judge, State of Florida.

In Re the Estate of } Dade County.
John T. Conrad, deceased.

Before me, Redmond B. Gentry, County Judge of said County, personally appeared Alex E. Conrad, who being by me first duly sworn, says that John T. Conrad, late of the County of Dade, and State of Florida, died on the second day of May, A. D. 1913, leaving his last will and testament, and that he the said defendant is named therein as Executor thereof. That he will faithfully discharge the duties of Executor aforesaid, well and truly perform the said last will and testament, pay the just debts on which the said John T. Conrad stood bound, as far as the same will extend, and the same direct, under the will and file in the County Judge Court of said County of Dade, a just, true and perfect inventory, and account of all, and singular the estate of said deceased, and of his administration thereof whereof I am required.

Alex E. Conrad.

I have to and subscribed before me the 15th day of May, A. D. 1913.

By: W. T. Bicket, Clerk.

In Court of the County Judge, State of Florida.

In Re the Estate of } Dade County.
John T. Conrad, deceased.

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting. Whereas John T. Conrad late of the County aforesaid, died on the second day of May, A. D. 1913, leaving his last will and testament, which, having been satisfactorily proven, was, on the sixteenth day of May, A. D. 1913, duly admitted to probate and record in the Court and as by said last will and testament, it appears that the Alex E. Conrad was named therein as Executor thereof, and said Alex E. Conrad, having prayed the Court to grant letters testamentary thereon to Alex E. Conrad as such Executor, and having, in due form of law, taken the prescribed oath, and performed all other acts necessary to his legal qualifications as such Executor, now therefore know ye that I, Redmond B. Gentry, County Judge in and for the County aforesaid, by virtue of the power and authority by law on me vested, do hereby declare the said Alex E. Conrad, duly qualified by the laws of said State to act as Executor of said last will and testament, with full power by the pres-power of law, and by virtue of their present, to administer all and singular the goods, chattels, rights, and credits of said John T. Conrad, and to act and demand for, receive and receive the same; to pay the debt in which the said John T. Conrad, stood bound, so far as the assets shall extend, and the law directly and indirectly authorizes to pay and to do for the purposes aforesaid, and by the said last will and testament, all the estates of said John T. Conrad, during the legal continuance of his administration, until the same shall expire by virtue of the provisions of said last will and testament, or until the power and authority hereby granted shall be duly revoked according to law. In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the County Judge's Court of the County aforesaid at Duval, Fla. 20th day of May, A.D. 1913.
