

L N Crauer will

The last will and testament of Lewis Nathaniel Crauer Considering the uncertainty of this life and being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following First I will and devise to my beloved wife Rebecca M Crauer all my real and personal estate for her natural life.

Second I will and devise to my son John A Crauer fifty acres of land to be cut off of the west end or side of my home tract of land for his natural life and after his death to the lawful issue of his body or their representatives.

Third I will and devise to my daughter Liza Jane Crauer the balance of my home tract of land for her natural life and then to the lawful issue of her body at her death or their representatives.

Fourth I will and bequeath that my personal property may be equally divided between my son and daughter John A Crauer and Liza J Crauer after my wife's death.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the third day of December in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty three.

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of Lewis Nathaniel Crauer deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Lewis N Crauer by the oath and examination of A J Crauer one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for him self depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Lewis N Crauer that the said Lewis N Crauer in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 3 day of Dec. 1883. And The Deponent further saith, That the said Lewis N Crauer the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to the last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and on the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Lewis N. Craver was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.
