

And the Depovent further saith that the said J. C. Brandon the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last will and Testament, and this depovent did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this depovent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the depovent's subscribing their names as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. C. Brandon was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this depovent. And further these depovents say not.
