

---FAMILY OF SMITH'S---

John Smith came to America from Ireland, settled in York County, had 6 children.

Rugh Smith married Mary Robinson.

James Smith married Mary Henry, he died at 81 years of age, and she lived to be 104 years (they were the parents of Mrs. Margaret Chambers). (GAR)

Mary Smith married George Sisty and in widowhood, married John Carson; Margaret married Cheny; James married Mary Henry: these last two had ten (10) children named and married;---Elizabeth married John Carson; Margaret to John Chambers; William to Sarah Biers; Robert to Anna McCaw, and after her death, to Elizabeth Mason, a widow whose maiden name was Bailey; Rugh to Elizabeth Walker; Nancy to Dr. Josiah Moore, afterwards to Malcolma Henry. Isabella married Jos. Hope; John to Elizabeth Love; Myrmin to Elvira Walker; ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Mary to William X Boggs of York district. This family were born between the years 1773 and 1793. Robert Smith's widow Elizabeth lives still (1883) with her youngest son Myrmin Smith on the old plantation 12 miles from Yorkville, South Carolina near Kings Mountain.