

Williams of Beach Island, South Carolina

Lud Williams died March 1798 in Edgefield County, South Carolina. Heirs of his estate were: nephews, Lud Harris, Lewis Harris and Elihu Williams. Also, Sarah Williams.

- Elihu Williams died intestate ca 1808 in Edgefield County.

A Deed in Trust dated 23 July 1808, of Elihu Williams, planter, to John Clarke of Beach Island, planter...."Elihu Williams is desirous to settle and transfer under considerations hereby declared unto said John Clarke to make over same to him in trust, for natural love he hat with Elizabeth his wife, Lud and Thomas, his sons, Mary, Frances and Elizabeth, his daughters, and of sum of $1.00 to him in hand paid by John Clarke, the following tracts of land...one tract of pine land of 218 1/2 acres adj. one other tract of 154 acres of pine land bounded on land of Lud Henry, Charles Goodwin, Joseph Hire and George Miller; also 95 acres on Beach Island being undivided part or moiety of a tract containng 1,000 acres originally surveyed for Lud Williams, deceased, Edward Rowell and John Clarke; and following Negroes, viz: Ben, Ellick, Ned, Jack, Hannah, Charlotte, Morning, Milley, Linder, with the increse of the females. The limitations of the Tr4ust to suffer the said Elizabeth, wife of said Elihu Williams, to hold, use and work said land and employ all slaves with increase of demales, everything before mentioned for her natural life free and clear, and also all my children that may be hereafter born. Proven 27 September 1808.

Issue of Elihu and Elizabeth Williams:

- 1. Lud Williams
- 2. Thomas Williams
- 3. Mary Williams

4. Frances Williams

5. Elizabeth Williams

Ref: Edgefield Co. Will of Lud Williams dated 10/26/1793, probated 3/13/1798; Deed of Trust, Edgefield Co. Deed Book 29, page 219.

www.southcarolinapioneers.com

Copyright by Jeannette Holland Austin. All Rights Reserved.