The State of South Carolina } is the honorable the Chancellor of said State Charleston District } the Report of James M. Gray Commissioner in Equity — Esports } I have made due enquiry respecting the allegations in the petition Mr. Susan Can } and find them to be substantially true. I find that Mr. James per Josephine Ami } Law is entitled to some property under Deeds in the registry of this Court to go as creditor and distributor of the Estate of her father John Dupont deceased That after her marriage with Mr. Robert Carr, Dr. James A. Johnson the administrator of John Dupont Estate, believing that Mr. Carrs Interest in her said Father Estate would be sufficient to indemnify him, assisted Mr. Carrs husband in the business of a Druggists first in Charleston and afterwards in Hamburg. Mr. Carr had the misfortune to fail in business in both places, and the return of himself and family to Charleston from Hamburg about 1831. Mr. Carr has done little or nothing towards the support of his family, but on the contrary Mr. Carr has been obliged to rely on her own exertions and the situation of ^{Dr.} Johnson and the friends for the maintenance of her family at the expense in this case Mr. Robert Carr the husband personally attended and admitted that it was improper to call witnesses to prove that the habits which he had unfortunately contracted would prevent his correct management of his wife's property and he expressed his willingness that Mr. McCrady should be permitted to assume the trust. The relation that Mr. Carr's interest in his father's Estate might be settled for her separate use; upon terms to be approved by this Court.

I find by the proceedings in the Court of Equity for the District in the cause of James Haysworth and wife and others versus Joseph and Eleanor Cox Executors of John Cox, an exemplification of which has been filed in this Court, to which I refer, that the Court in February last among other matters ordered that part of the Estate of Channah and Joseph D. Cox to which to which Susan Carr (The Direct-Heir) is entitled should be settled to her separate use during the life of her husband Robert Carr, and after his death to be paid over to her discharged of the trust; But should she not survive her said Husband, Subject to testamentary disposition by her, without the consent of her said husband, and in default of such testamentary disposition by her, to her next of kin entitled to take under the act for the distribution of the Estate of intestates, and that Dr. Isaac C. Johnson of Charleston be appointed her Trustee to receive the same and invest the same in Bank Stock or other Public Securities, or in such other way as the Court may hereafter direct with power to break in on the Capital under the directions of this Court. I find that no part of this Estate has been received by Dr. Johnson or any other person for Mrs. Carr, and that the appointment of Dr. Johnson as Trustee was made without his knowledge or consent and he now declines taking the Trust.

Edward McCrady Esq. has been requested by the petitioner to act as trustee with respect to both Estates. He is the friend of the family, acquainted with the interest of Mrs. Carr in the property and is in every respect competent to the discharge of such a duty. It is respectfully submitted that the interests of Mrs. Carr in these several Estates be paid over or transferred to Edward McCrady Esq. as her Trustee on the trusts and for the uses and purposes following: viz. In trust to pay over the income or interest of the property to Mrs. Susan Carr during her life upon her separate receipt. In case Mrs. Susan Carr should die before her husband Robert Carr then in trust to pay and transfer the money or property in which the money may be invested to such person or persons as Mrs. Susan Carr by any writing purporting to be her last will and Testament may appoint to receive the same discharged from all further trusts, and in default of such writing or will then to the next of kin of the said Susan Carr discharged from all further trusts. It is further respectfully submitted that the trustee be empowered from time to time to invest the money in such property as he with the consent and approbation of Mr. Isaac Carr to be refused inasmuch as the same most profitable or judicious, and also that the trustees have power to adjust and settle the claims of Dr. Isaac A. Johnson against the trust before the proper officers of this Court whose duty it shall be to report thereon all which is respectfully submitted. James M. Gray Commr
