This Indenture of three parts made and executed this seventh day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three; Between Elizabeth Annis Livingston of Charleston, in the State aforesaid of the first part, Peter Mood of the same place of the second part and Francis D. Poyas of the same place Trustee of the third part

Whereas a marriage is intended soon to be had and solemnized, Between the said, Peter Mood and the said Elizabeth Annis Livingston, and upon the Treaty for the said intended marriage it was agreed that all the Estate, real or personal which the said Elizabeth Annis is now or may hereafter be possessed of or entitled unto should be settled and secured in trust to and for the several uses, intents and purposes, and under and subject to the several powers, provisions, limitations, declarations and agreements hereinafter declared and expressed. Now in consideration of the said intended marriage, and also in consideration of the sum of one Dollar by the said Francis D. Poyas to the said

Elizabeth Annis at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents, well and truly paid she the said Elizabeth Annis, hath granted, bargained, sold, released, assigned, delivered and confirmed and doth by these presents, grant, bargain, sell, release, assign, deliver and confirm unto the said Francis D. Poyas, three negro slaves namely Jane and her two Children Jemmy and Maria; To have and to hold the said negro slaves with the future issue and increase of the females of them unto the said Francis D. Poyas his Executors, administrators, assigns and successors, in trust to and for the several uses, intents and purposes upon the several trusts and with under and subject to the several pro-visos, limitations declarations conditions and agreements herein-after expressed and declared of and concerning the same; That is to say, to the use of the said Elizabeth Annis until the said intended Marriage shall be had and solemnized; and from and after the solemnization of the said marriage, then upon trust for the sole and separate use of the said Elizabeth Annis during the continuance of her said intended Coverture, so as that the said slaves and their increase shall not be at any time or in any manner subject or liable to the debts, contracts or controul of the said Peter Mood. and upon the further trust that in case the said Elizabeth Annis should out live the said Peter, then the said slaves shall upon the death of the said Peter become the absolute property of the said Elizabeth Annis free and discharged from all the uses, trusts, limitations, provisos and conditions herein set forth; But in case the said Elizabeth Annis shall die before the said Peter, then upon trust from and after the death of the said Elizabeth Annis for the use of such person or persons and for such Estate or estates as she the said Elizabeth Annis shall appoint by last will and testament or writing in the nature thereof or Deed executed in the presence of three disinterested witnesses and in case the said Elizabeth Annis shall die without having disposed of the said property by last will and testament, or writing in the nature thereof or by deed as aforesaid, then from and after her death upon trust for the use of such child or children of the said Elizabeth Annis as may be living at the time of her death, if one then to that one, and if more than one, then to be equally divided among them share and share alike; provided always that if either or any of the said children shall have died, leave issue, which shall be living at the time of the death of the said Elizabeth Annis, then such issue shall represent him or their parent or parents and take the same share or shares in the said property as the parent or parents would if alive have taken. But in case the said Elizabeth Annis should leave no child or children, or the issue of any child or children living at the time of her death, then upon trust from and after her death for the use of the said Peter for and during his natural life and from and after his death then upon trust for the next of kin of the said Elizabeth Annis, who would by law be entitled to the said property and it is hereby declared and agreed, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Francis D. Poyas his Executors, administrators and successors at any time or times after the solemnization of the said marriage with the consent or approbation of the said Peter and Elizabeth Annis, testified in writing signed by them to grant, bargain, sell or exchange all or any of the said slaves and the monies, choses in action, or other property whatsoever for which the said slaves or any of them shall be sold or exchanged shall be subject to the same ends and intents, trusts, uses, limitations, provisos, conditions, declarations and agreements as are herein expressed and declared of and concerning the said slaves. This Indenture Testaments made the eighteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty two. Between Richard Lane of the parish of St. Helena of the first part, Rachel Winkler of St. Peter's parish widow of the second part, and William Brooker of St. Peter's Parish of the third part as trustee. Whereas a marriage is intended to be shortly had and solemnized by and between the said Richard Lane and Rachel Winkler and whereas the said Rachel Winkler is possessed of some real property consisting of a tract of land containing three hundred and ten acres situated in St. Peter's parish on or near the waters of Coosawhatchie swamp, being a moiety of a tract formerly owned by Knowles, the other moiety now owned by William Winn. also some personal Estate consisting of the following slaves to wit, Rachel, Hannah & Elsey.

 And it hath been agreed that the said Richard Lane, should after the intended marriage had, receive and enjoy, during the joint lives of them, the said Richard Lane and Rachel Winkler the interest and profits of the said real and personal Estate, but that the same, and the profits thereof, after the death of the said Richard Lane if he shall first depart this life, shall revert to the said Rachel Winkler if she shall be the survivor. But it is intended and agreed upon by the said parties that if the said Rachel Winkler shall first depart this life, that the said Estate both real and personal shall remain in the possession of the said Richard Lane and he to enjoy the benefits and profits therefrom accruing during his natural life, and no longer, then to such child or children as the said Rachel Winkler may have surviving at the death of the said Richard Lane, but in case there be neither child nor children, then the said tract of land containing three hundred and ten acres, and the negro slaves to wit Rachel, Hannah & Elsey, with their issue and increase to be equally divided between John Knowles and Edmund Knowles, Brothers of the said Rachel Winkler and the lawful heirs of their bodies forever. Now this Indenture witnesseth, that in pursuance of the above recited agreement, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to the said Rachel Winkler in hand paid by the said William Brooker trustee the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, she the said Rachel Winkler by and with the privity, consent and agreement of the said Richard Lane testified by his being made a party to, and sealing and delivery of these presents, hath granted, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred and set over, and by these presents doth grant bargain, sell, assign, transfer and set over, unto the said William Brooker trustee his executors, administrators and assigns. All the said tract of land as above recited and described, and also ^{the} three negro slaves to wit Rachel, Hannah Elsey with their future issue and increase. To have and to hold the said lands and negroes unto the said William Brooker his Executors, administrators and assigns in trust, nevertheless, and for such purposes and under such provisions and agreements as are hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, in trust for the said Rachel Winkler and her assigns, until the solemnization of the said intended marriage, and from and after the solemniza-tion of the said intended marriage. Then in trust, that he the said Richard Lane during the joint lives of the said Richard Lane and Rachel Winkler, his intended wife and during the life of the said Richard Lane if he shall survive the said Rachel Winkler. To have, receive, take and enjoy all the interest and profits of the said real and personal Estate to and for his own use and benefit; and from and after the decease of the said Richard Lane then if the said Rachel Winkler shall survive him. In trust, that he the said William Brooker his Executors, Administrators shall assign, transfer and pay over all the said real and personal Estate to the said Rachel Winkler, but if she departs this life first, then unto such child or children as she the said Rachel Winkler may leave at her decease, in failure of child or children then to John Knowles and Edmund Knowles, and the lawful heirs of their bodies subject nevertheless to the life time Estate of the said Richard Lane as above made and provided.

 It is further agreed, by the said parties contracting viz. Richard Lane, Rachel Winkler, and William Brooker that no part or parcel, of the above described real or personal property, shall be at any time, now, or hereafter liable or subject to the debts, dues, contracts or engagements, now entered into, or contracted, or that hereafter may be entered into or contracted, by the said Richard Lane but that the right of property in the above premises shall remain in the said William Brooker as trustee for the use of the 65 said Rachel Winkler and her heirs forever. In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year first above written. Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of

Whereas a marriage is intended to be had and solemnized between the said John S. Geyer and Esther E Bonneau, and she the said Esther E. Bonneau is possessed in her own right of two certain bonds and mortgages, to wit, one bond of George Edwards to William Harsh Gibbs Master in Equity, dated the seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the penalty whereof is twenty five thousand two hundred Dollars with a condition thereunder written for the payment of twelve thousand six hundred dollars as follows, the principal with interest from the first day of March, in one two and three years by equal annual instalments of the principal and the interest upon the whole amount remaining unpaid at the end of each year, so that the whole of principal and interest be paid on or before the first day of March on the

sent eight hundred and twenty five, upon which said bond the principal sum of eight thousand dollars is now due, and the interest has been paid up to the sixth day of March next, and a mortgage of twenty seven negro slaves, by the said George Edwards to the said William Hasell Gibbs, bearing the same date as the said bond and given for the purpose of securing the same, which said bond and mortgage were assigned on the same day of their dates, by the said William Hasell Gibbs to Jacob Bond. On as guardian of the said Esther E. Bonneau, and have been lately and now are pledged by her the said Esther E. Bonneau to the bank of the United States, to secure the payment of a certain note of Arnoldus Bonneau endorsed by her, the said Esther E. Bonneau, for eighteen hundred dollars dated twenty first November one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, and the renewals thereon, and one other bond, of Arnoldus Bonneau of Christ Church parish, to her the said Esther E. Bonneau dated the seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine in the penal sum of six thousand dollars conditioned for the payment of three thousand dollars with lawful interest from the date to be paid annually and the whole amount to be paid on or before the seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty five, secured by a mortgage of the same date, from the said Arnoldus Bonneau to the said Esther E. Bonneau of a tract of land in Christ Church parish aforesaid containing six hundred acres, and twelve negro slaves; and she the said Esther E. Bonneau is also possessed of a certain other mortgage bearing date the twentieth November one thousand eight hundred and thirty two from Susan Maybank to her the said Esther E. Bonneau, of seven negro slaves given for the purpose of countersecuring her the said Esther E. Bonneau against any loss she might sustain by reason of her said endorsement of the note aforesaid of the said Arnoldus Bonneau. And whereas, upon the treaty of the said marriage it was agreed by and between the said John J. Geyer and Esther E. Bonneau, that all the estate of the said Esther E. Bonneau of whatever it consisted, should be conveyed assigned settled and assured, to the uses upon the trusts, for the intents and purposes, and by, with, under and subject to the powers, provisos, declarations and agreements hereinafter limited, expressed and declared of and concerning the same. Now this Indenture, witnesseth, that in pursuance and performance of the said agreement and for and in consideration of the said intended marriage and for settling the bonds and mortgage hereby assigned and released or intended so to be; to the uses, upon the trusts for the intents and purposes and by with under and subject to the powers provisions and agreements herein after limited expressed and declared of and concerning the same and in consideration of the sum of five dollars to her the said Esther E. Bonneau in hand paid by the said John E. Bonneau at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, she the said Esther E. Bonneau, by and with the purity and consent of the said John S. Geyer (testified by his being a party to these presents) hath granted, bargained sold assigned transferred and set over and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the said John E. Bonneau his executors administrators and assigns all and singular the said bond and mortgage of the said George Edwards, the said bond and mortgage of the said Arnoldus Bonneau and the said mortgage of the said Susan Maybank, hereinbefore already particularly described and also hereafter specified in the Schedule A hereunto annexed, and also all the right title claim and demand whatsoever of her the said Esther E. Bonneau of in or to the same or any part thereof. To have and to hold, receive and take all and singular the bonds and mortgages and the several sums of money now due or hereafter to grow due thereon with them and every of their appurtenances, unto the said John E. Bonneau his executors administrators and assigns forever. Upon trust nevertheless, and to and for the sole use benefit and behoof of her the said Esther E. Bonneau her executors administrators and assigns until the solemnization of the said intended marriage between her the said Esther E. Bonneau and him the said John S. Geyer, then in trust for and during the joint lives of them the said John S. Geyer and Esther E. Bonneau, to and for the joint use benefit and behoof of them the said John S. Geyer and Esther E. Bonneau and to suffer and permit them to have take and receive the issues, income, interest and profits arising from the said bonds and mortgages and every part and parcel thereof to and for their joint use and benefit without being in any manner subject to the debts contracts or controul of the said John S. Geyer; and should she the said Esther E. Bonneau survive him the said John S. Geyer then from and after his death in trust to and for the sole use benefit and behoof of her the said Esther E. Bonneau her executors administrators and assigns freed and discharged from all further and other trusts. And should she the said Esther E. Bonneau die before him the said John S. Geyer, then in trust and to and for the use, benefit and behoof of all, and every person or persons, for such estate in such parts, shares and proportions, manner and form and subject to such provisos, conditions restrictions and limitations and with such remainaever as she the said Esther E. Bonneau at any time or times hereafter during her life, notwithstanding her coverture, by her last will and testament in writing or any writing purporting to be her last will and testament to be signed and published by her in the presence of and to be attested by three or more credible witnesses, shall limit direct or appoint; and in default of any such limitation direction or appointment, and in case she the said Esther E. Bonneau should so die before him the said John S. Geyer without leaving issue living at the time of her death, then in trust as to one moiety of the said property to and for the use benefit and behoof of him the said John S. Geyer his executors administrators and assigns freed and discharged from all further and other trusts; and as to the other moiety of the said property, to and for the use benefit and behoof of such of the children of William H. Bonneau, as shall be alive at the time of the death of her the said Esther E. Bonneau, their executors administrators and assigns freed and discharged from all further and other trusts. And in default of any such limitation direction and appointment as aforesaid and in case she the said Esther E. Bonneau should so die before him the said John S. Geyer leaving issue living at the time of her death then in trust to suffer and permit him the said John S. Geyer to have take and receive the said issues, income, interest and profits of the said property, for and during the term of his natural life, and at the death of him the said John S. Geyer then in trust to and for the use benefit and behoof of such of the issue of the said Esther E. Bonneau by this intended marriage as shall be then living, if more than one share and share and share alike among them, and if but one then to that one, their, his or her executors administrators and assigns freed and discharged from all further and other trusts; the issue of any deceased child of the said intended marriage representing their parents and taking such part or share as the parent if alive at that time would have taken, provided always, nevertheless, should all the said issue of the said intended marriage so living at the death of the said Esther E. Bonneau, die during the life time of the said John S. Geyer without any of them having attained the age of twenty one years or having married, then at the death of the last survivor of them the issue in trust as to one moiety of the said property, to and for the use of the said John S. Geyer his executors administrators and assigns and his and their proper benefit and behoof freed and discharged from all further and other trusts, and as to the other moiety of the said property, to and for the use benefit and behoof of such of the children of the said William H. Bonneau as shall be then living their executors administrators and assigns freed and discharged from all further and other trusts, and it is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of these presents, that in any of the events herein before stated, in or by which the children of William H. Bonneau are provided for that in any such case or even the issue of any deceased child of the said William H. Bonneau shall represent the parent of such issue and take the same share among them which his/her or their parent would have taken if then alive. And it is hereby further declared, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said John E. Bonneau and his successor and successors as trustee under this Deed from time to time and at all times hereafter when and as often as may be thought proper by and with the advice and consent of the said John S. Geyer and Esther E. Bonneau or of the said John S. Geyer surviving her, to take collect and receive the principal moneys due on the said bonds and mortgages and the moneys thence arising again to invest in such other property real or personal as may be thought most beneficial and advantageous and the same again to sell and dispose of and to the proceeds thereof to reinvest, when and as often from time to time and at all times hereafter as may be thought proper, subject nevertheless and always to and for the same uses, intents and purposes hereinbefore expressed and declared of and concerning the same, and lastly, that it shall and may be lawful for the said John S. Geyer and Esther E. Bonneau or of the said John S. Geyer surviving her, from time to time and at all times hereafter in and by their or his Deed under their or his hand and seal executed in the presence of two witnesses when and as often as may be thought proper by and with the advice and consent of the said John E. Bonneau or his successor or successors, and should there be no acting nominated trustee then alive, without such consent and advice, to constitute, nominate and appoint another trustee or trustees in the place and stead of the said John E. Bonneau, his or either of his successor or successors as trustee or trustees as aforesaid. And the successor or successors as trustee or trustees as aforesaid last constituted nominated and appointed shall and will possess and enjoy all and singular the rights, powers, privileges and authorities and be subject to the duties and responsibilities of the original trustees and the person or persons formerly trustee or trustees in whose place and stead such new trustee or trustees may be appointed shall be forthwith herefrom forever exonerated and discharged.

 said Estate, right, title and interest derivable, derived, or to be derived from the said Marriage settlement whenever and as the said, Jane B Johnston shall become entitled to the same, shall be conveyed, assigned, and transferred to the said Agnes B Johnston and Matthew G Gibbs trustees hereby nominated and appointed under this Marriage settlement to them and the Survivor or survivor of them and the heirs, executors and administrators of such survivor Or trust that they and each of them do grant and suffer the said Jane B Johnston from time to time and at all times during the coverture and during the natural life of the said Jane B Johnston to take to herself and to and for her sole and separate use, benefit and behoof notwithstanding the said coverture and not liable to or for the debts or engagements of her said intended husband, the rents, profits, issues and proceeds thereof and of every part and parcel thereof as they arise and are had; And from and immediately after the death of the said Jane B Johnston Or trust for the use, benefit and behoof of such issue of the said Marriage as shall be appointed or designated by the said Benjamin and Jane in an instrument of writing signed by their own hands and witnessed by two or more credible witnesses, to such child or children the issue of said marriage, if more than one to be equally divided amongst them share and share alike on their attaining the age of Twenty one years or day of marriage to them

King:

Whereas it is intended that a marriage shall be had and solemnized between James Machide Shackelford of the city of Charleston and State aforesaid and Martha Brown, daughter of Robert Brown of the same place and by reason of her minority, she is unable by Law to execute a conveyance of the property to which she is entitled under the Will of her lately deceased aunt Martha Miles (duly made and published under and by virtue of power reserved and given to her in and by her marriage settlement with Andrew Miles her husband, who hath survived her) or to covenant for the conveyance of the other property that may hereafter accrue to her to Trustees in a marriage settlement for the uses and purposes to which it is deemed advisable that the said property should be settled. But she is perfectly competent to express her sentiments respecting the provisions of said settlement, and in order to secure the said settlement, the said James Machide Shackelford has on the day of the date of these presents executed unto the said Robert Brown and Robert Living Brown as Trustees of the said Martha Brown in a Bond in the penal sum of Fifty thousand Dollars conditioned for the performance of certain covenants and agreements in the recital of the said Bond fully set forth and intended to operate as a marriage settlement, and which said recital is hereby specially referred to and made a part of their presents and in order to induce the of the said Martha Brown to the said settlement and the acceptance of the Trustees of the said Trust and the command therein of the said James Mackie Shackelford, the execution of this instrument has been advised. Now therefore these presents Witness, That in consideration of the said intended marriage she the said Martha Brown hath approved and agreed to and doth approve and agree to all and singular the several clauses, covenants and provisions in the said intended settlement in the name of the said ^{said} not father and containedly and that he the said James Mackie Shackelford and she the said Martha Brown have each of them both approved and sanctioned and do and each of them doth hereby approve and sanction the nomination and appointment of the said Robert Brown and Robert Ewing Brown as Trustees of the said settlement and that they the said Robert Brown and Robert Ewing Brown have respectively consented and agreed and do hereby consent and agree to accept the office and charge of Trustees of the said settlement and to perform the several duties thereby rendered incumbent on them.
