

WILL OF

ANDREW WHITE

IN ALL, HONORABLE GOD, I PURPOSE TO BE MY LAST will and testament as I find myself to be sound in every Faculty and Member of my Body altho weak and in a lingering condition and I seem to think that God in his Providence is A going to pluck me off this stage. I in the first place allow My Body to be Recently Buried beside my Father and Mother and my Earnest Desire is that my Soul may Ascend to Remain with the Lord in the Reigons of Bless or Heaven that place of Happiness. And next what worldly goods I possess I purpose to Vestribute as follows. I allow My Bro Mar-law Adam Stewart to settle my affairs.- first the four pound, ten Note that James Gilmora owes I leave it to pay the expenses of my Coffin Nails and some Liquor to give the people at my wake and a Dram Just before the start with my corpes the four Pound Note I allow it for to pay Pat White Wm Richards Jas Calhoun and Dan'l Garvin What Remains of these two notes I will to my Brotherinlaw for his trouble and Next my Nephew James who I will make my Heir on account that he is the Name of my Father. In the first place I will to My Nephew Jas Stewart my Land my Watch my Bible Slate My Gun penknife inkstand and Reding Comb for ever to be his, and Next I will to My Cousin Andrew Milligan my Clothes all but what I ware to the Earth for ever to be his the two thousand Wt of Tobacco that Tho White owes I divide this way first My Uncle Jas Milligan I will one Hoggeshead to him for my boarding forever to be his and the other thousand Wt. I will to my Friends this day J. E. Jain and Thomas White Each one Hundred Wt. Cady and Andrew White Each one Hundred Wt to my old Aunt Mary McBride and Cousin Andrew McBride one Hundred Wt. Each to my Cousins Sarah Rachel and Mary Milligan one 100 Wt

allow My Body to be Recently Buried beside my Father and Mother and my Earnest Desire is that my Soul may Ascend to Remain with the Lord in the Regions of Bless or Heaven that place of Happiness. And next what worldly goods I possess
I purpose to distribute as follows. I allow My Bro Brotherinlaw Adam Stewart to settle my affairs.- First the four
pound, ten Note that James Gilmora owes I leave it to pay
the expenses of my Coffin Nails and some Liquor to give the people at my wake and a Dram Just before the start with my corpes the four Pound Note I allow it for to pay Nat White Wm Richards Jas Calhoun and Dan'l Garvin What Remains of these two notes I will to my Brotherinlaw for his trouble and Next
my Nephew James who I will make my Heir on account that he is the Name of my Father. In the first Place I will to My Nephew Jas Stewart my Land my Watch my Bible Slate My Gun
penknife inkstand and Reding Comb for ever to be his, and Next I will to My Cousin Andrew Milligan my Clothes all but
what I ware to the Earth for ever to be his the two thousand
Wt of Tobacco that Tho White owes I divide this way first My Uncle Jas Milligan I will one Hoggeshead to him for my boarding forever to be his and the other thousand Wt. I will to my Friends this way J. E. Jain and Thomas White Each one Hundred Wt. Caty and Andrew White Each one hundred Wt to my old Aunt Mary McBride and Cousin Andrew McBride one Hundred Wt. Each to my Cousins Hugh Rachel and Mary Milligan one 100 Wt or the Price of it I will to these my Friends forever the last 100 Wt. I will to my Nephew Ann Stewart with my Box that my Cloath is in and my Hat forever to be Her's I will to my Nephew Mary Stewart my Bed and all my Bed Cloathes for ever to be her's I will to my Sister Mary Stewart my fine Cloath the Box that my Paper

my Nephew Adam Stewart my Dictionary with all my other Books except my Arithmetic which I allow to James. I will to him for ever to be his I will to my Brotherinlaw my Case & Razor to be his while he lives & the. I allow Jas. to get them my Saddle & Bridle I will to my Cousin Andw Milligan to be his for ever What pay is coming for teaching school I will to my three smallest Nephews to pay for schooling to them what Robt Lawson owes I will to them too all but one pair of shoes to my Uncle James Milligan thus IN THE NAME OF G-D I Distribute my Worldly Goods to my Friends in hopes that they will all be willing to have my Last will and testament fulfilled as soon as affairs will suite and see that their be no Contentions Among You. I now conclude my will with my Blessings to my Friends and in hopes that the Lord will Bless you all and give you his Spirit of Prayer that works by Love and purifies the heart. AMEN.

As Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Second Day of Aprile in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven Hundred and Ninety five.

his Seal

WITNESS)

Andrew Ewart

Recorded in Will Book N.1. Page 244

Box 31- Pkg., 684

Proven the 13th Sept. 1799

Recorded date in Abbeville County Wills 1787-1815

www.southcarolinapioneers.net