

WILL SCARBROUGH

In the Name of God! Amen.

I William Scarbrough of the State of South Carolina, and District of Barnwell, at this Time of sound and perfect Memory, and in Health of Body, do this Twenty ninth Day of January, in the Year of our Lord, one Thousand eight Hundred and ten, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following

First- First. -- I will and require that Payment of any Debts, I may be owing at the Time of my Decease, be made from that part of my Estate, which I shall here distinguish by the Appellation of "pecuniary Concerns" and which will consist of my Cash, Bonds, Notes, Book Debts outstanding Dues of every Description, Stock of any Insurance or Banking Company or the like.

Second I give and bequeath unto my much esteemed and dear Wife Lucy Scarbrough, for and during her natural Life, the whole of the Belfast Mill Property or Plantation, with all the houses Buildings & Appurtenances of the same, likewise all the Stock of Horses, Hogs & Cattle of every Description, together with all & every one of the Negroes of which I am possessed at the Time of my Death. --- the whole of which property as well real as Personal, so bequeathed to my said Wife Lucy, devolving at her Death, as is hereafter set forth, upon my Son William & his Heirs -- And I furthermore give and bequeath, unto my said Wife Lucy, to be enjoyed or disposed of in any manner she shall deem proper the whole of my Household Furniture and Equipage and one fourth part of my "pecuniary Concerns" as is expressed and explained in the first & preceding Clause of this my last Will & Testament. But in case of the Death of my said Wife Lucy, before my own: or if she should Die without having disposed of Will

January, in the Year of our Lord, one Thousand eight Hundred and ten, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following

First- First. -- I will and require that Payment of any Debts, I may be owing at the Time of my Decease, be made from that part of my Estate, which I shall here distinguish by the Appellation of "pecuniary Concerns" and which will consist of my Cash, Bonds, Notes, Books Debts outstanding Dues of every Description, Stock of any Insurance or Banking Company or the like.

Second I give and bequeath unto my much esteemed and dear Wife Lucy Seabrough, for and during her natural Life, the whole of the Belfast Mill Property or Plantation, with all the houses Buildings & Appurtenances of the same, likewise all the stock of Horses, Hogs & Cattle of every Description, together with all ~~the~~ ^{the} Negroes of which I am possessed at the Time of my Death. --- the whole of which property as well real as Personal, so bequeathed to my said Wife Lucy, devolving at her Death, as is hereafter set forth, upon my Son William & his Heirs -- And I furthermore give and bequeath, unto my said Wife Lucy, to be enjoyed or disposed of in any manner she shall deem proper the whole of my Household Furniture and Equipage and one fourth part of my "pecuniary Concerns" as is expressed and explained in the first & preceding Clause of this my last Will & Testament. But in case of the Death of my said Wife Lucy, before my own; or if she should Die without having disposed by Will or otherwise, of this said Bequest of my Household Furniture & Equipage and fourth part of my "pecuniary Concerns" I desire that the Amount of the same may be equally divided between my Son William & Daughters Elizabeth & Lucy, but with the exprefs provide, that the part of share of my said Daughter Elizabeth be placed for her use and Benefit in the Hands of the Trust, in the manner that is set forth in the fourth clause of this my last Will & Testament, and as is fully intended to be done with all the Property now and hereby devised & bequeathed to my said Daughter Elizabeth.

Third. I give and bequeath unto my Son William Scarbrough the whole of the Lands and real Property of every Description of which I Die possessed, subject nevertheless, to the Life Estate of his Mother in the Belfast Mill Property, as is set forth in the preceding second clause. and likewise at the Decease of his said Mother, I give and bequeath unto him my said Son, all and every of my Negroes and Plantation Stock; as is set forth in the said preceding clause, and any other Personal Property not excepted or bequeathed away by this present Will. -- And I furthermore give and bequeath unto my said Son William, one fourth part of my pecuniary Concerns, as expressed and explained in the first clause hereof, provided nevertheless that the Amount of my said pecuniary Concerns, to be divided, at the Time of my Decease, shall amount to the Sum of Fifty two Thousand Dollars.~ in default of this, it is my Will & Desire that this said fourth part now bequeathed to my said Son William (but no other part of my Requests to him) shall be held liable as far as the same will go, towards making up to each of my Daughters Elizabeth Gillett & Lucy Scarbrough, their full fourth parts of the said Sum of Fifty two Thousand Dollars, or thirteen Thousand Dollars each, But it is expressly to be understood, that if on the other hand, the amount to be divided is Fifty two Thousand Dollars and upwards, then my said Son William's Right shall not by this
