No. 28

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God. Amen. I Heloise Bonds of Charleston, widow, being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding and mindful of the uncertainty of life, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say: I give devise and bequeath, unto my Executors hereinafter nominated and to the survivors of them, and to such other person or persons, as may hereafter be appointed according to law to carry this my Will into execution, all my Estate, both real and personal, of whatever nature or kind or wherever situated whether in possession or expectancy, with full power to my ^{said} executor or executors, or persons, as for the times being may be duly qualified in law, to execute my Will and administer my Estate, to sell alien or in any other manner to dispose of, the whole or any part of my said estate, whether real or personal, and to execute valid conveyances therefor to such purchasers. I do trust nevertheless to apply and dispose of my said Estate or the proceeds thereof after payment of all my just debts in such manner as is hereinafter declared and directed. Whereas my Daughter Emma Le Roy wife of Narcisse Le Roy and my son Charles Louis Boudo, were each of them so entitled to equal shares of the estate of their deceased Father Louis Boudo and should also be put upon an equal footing in the division of my own estate: And whereas also, I have paid to the said Narcisse Le Roy the husband of my said daughter Emma Le Roy, his distributive share of his Father and sister Cecile's estate, amounting to the sum of two thousand one hundred and fifty eight Dollars and fifty three cents, and have also given to my said daughter and her husband a house and lot of the value of two thousand eight hundred and forty one Dollars and forty seven cents, and have also paid debts for the said Narcisse Le Roy, as his surety to the amount of two thousand Dollars, making together the aggregate sum of seven thousand Dollars, which my said daughter and her husband have already received from the estate of her Father, her sister and myself. Now therefore it is my Will and desire and I hereby direct my said executor or administrators in the first place to deliver or pay to the said Narcisse Le Roy in the first place to deliver or pay to my son, the said Charles ^{Le Roy} Boudo, property or the proceeds of property, of my real ^{and} personal estate herein before devised and bequeathed in trust, of the full value of seven thousand dollars, so as to put him upon an equal footing with his sister, the said Emma Le Roy, as aforesaid; provided that the same shall be accepted by my said son, the said Charles Louis Boudo, in lieu of, and in satisfaction of his devolutive share of the estate, of his said Father, and his sister Cecile. It is then my will and desire and I hereby direct my said Executors or administrators, to divide all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, into two equal parts or shares and to dispose of the same, subject to a provision hereinafter made for my own Mother Mrs Eugenie Dile, in manner and following: that is to say. One of the Moieties or shares of the said residue of my estate to be conveyed transferred or assigned to my son the said Charles Louis Boudo, his heirs, executors administrators and assigns; but it is nevertheless my will and I hereby expressly direct that my said son Charles Louis Boudo shall not be permitted to have the actual possession or control of his said share until he attains the age of twenty one years and in the mean time the rents, issues, income and annual profits thereof to be applied, to his support maintenance and education. And as to the other Moiety or share of the said residue of my estate, my will and desire is that it shall remain my will with his sister, the said Emma Le Roy, as aforesaid; provided that the same shall be accepted by my said son, the said Charles Louis Boudo, in lieu of, and in satisfaction of his distributive share of the estates, of his said Father, and his sister Cecile. It is then my will and desire and I hereby direct my said Executors or administrators, to divide all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, into two equal parts or shares and to dispose of the same, subject to a provision hereinafter made for my own Mother Mrs Eugenie Dile, in manner and following: that is to say. One of the Moieties or shares of the said residue of my estate to be conveyed transferred or assigned to my son the said Charles Louis Boudo, his heirs, executors administrators and assigns; but it is nevertheless my will and I hereby expressly direct that my said son Charles Louis Boudo shall not be permitted to have the actual possession or control of his said share until he attains the age of twenty one years and in the mean time the rents, issues, income and annual profits thereof to be applied, to his support maintenance and education. And as to the other Moiety or share of the said residue of my estate, my will and desire is, that the same shall remain in the possession of my said executors or administrators until they shall have duly settled and apportioned the same to my the rents, issues income and profits thereof during the joint lives of the said Narcipe Le Roy and Emma Le Roy and his wife and from time to time to pay the same to the said Emma Le Roy and, ^{her} assigns, notwithstanding her coverture for her sole and separate use, free from the direction, control, or interference of her said husband, so that the said Emma Le Roy shall not sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of the same, in the way of anticipation. And if the said Emma Le Roy should survive the said Narcipe Le Roy, her said husband, then in trust to convey, transfer and assign the said Mosey or share to the said Emma Le Roy, her heirs, executors, administrators & assigns forever; But if the said Emma Le Roy should die in the life time of the said Narcipe Le Roy, her said husband, then in trust to convey, assign and transfer the said Mosey or share to such child or children of the said Emma Le Roy, as she may leave surviving her to be equally divided among them, share my own estate in case of intestacy, Provided always and it is my true intent and will, that the whole of the said residue of my estate shall be subject as aforementioned to a provision on for the support and maintenance of my Mother, the said Mrs Eugene Dile, of one half part or moiety of the clear rents, issues, income and profits of the said residue, to be paid to her half yearly, for and during the term of her natural life and I will and direct my said executors and administrators, before disposing of any part of the said residue, for the benefit of my said son, or daughter, to make such arrangements as may be necessary for securing to my said Mother, the punctual payment of the provision hereby directed for her support and maintenance. And I here by give to my said Executors & Administrators all powers of selling, exchanging, conveying, investing and making partition or division of my estate, which may be necessary for carrying the several provisions of this my will into effect, directing that where specific ^{property} is conveyed or transferred by them, to to the use of either my said son or daughter, due regard shall be had to the value thereof, so that equal justice shall be done to both of my said children in the division of my estate.

of my death, shall be subject to the use hereinafter directed, in which my whole estate shall be so directed as to place my son and daughter upon an equal footing, and the provision made for the support of my mother to the extent and in the manner herebefore directed. Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint Charles Edmondston and James L. Pittman Esquires, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby requesting of those Gentlemen, that both, or at least one of them, will accept the said appointment and undertake the execution of my Will, until the proper settlements have been made upon my daughter and the necessary arrangements executed for securing the punctual payment of the provision for my Mother. And I hereby revoke all former and other wills, at any time heretofore by me made, declaring this to be my last Will & Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Charleston in the State of South Carolina on the nineteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two.

It is my Will, that Charles Edmondston Esquire should act as

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen I He-loise Boudo of the City of Charleston, in the State aforesaid, widow, be-ing of sound and disposing mind Memory and understanding do make and ordain this beedil to my last Will and Testament which was duly made and executed on the 19th day of September A.D. 1832 together with a short beedil thereto of the same date.

First, I revoke so much of my said Will as directs the executor thereof to pay or deliver to my son Charles Louis Boudo, property or the proceeds of property, of the value of Four thousand eight hundred and forty one dollar and forty seven cents; the same being the value and amount of a House and lot, which I had given to my Daughter Emma Le Roy and her husband Narcisse Le Roy and of debts which I had paid for the said Narcisse Le Roy. And my Will is that my Executor shall pay to my son Charles Louis Boudo on his attaining the age of twenty one years, if the same shall not have been previously paid by myself, the sum of twenty one hundred and fifty eight dollar and fifty three cents, interest included, whose sum has been settled and adjusted by a decree of the Court of Equity to be his share of the estate of his Father his deceased sister Lucile, in my hands and the annual interest thereof allowed to me by the said Court for the education and maintenance of my said son, which has annually cost me much more than the interest on his ^{said} share would amount to. And after paying the said debt to my said son, and all my other just debts, my will is, that the residue of my estate, real and personal shall be divided into two equal parts or moieties, one of which shall be settled and apured to the sole and separate use of my daughter Emma Le Roy, in the manner and upon the conditions and subject to the provision for my Mother Jane Dill, mentioned and directed in my said Will and subject also to the alterations and further directions hereinafter mentioned and declared; the other moiety to be conveyed, transferred, assigned and delivered to my son Charles Louis Boudo, subject to the provision for my Mother Jane Dill and to the conditions mentioned in my said Will. provided, that my said son shall first, upon receiving the said sum of two thousand one hundred and fifty eight dollars and fifty three cents, have duly executed a release to me or to my executors, of all claim upon my estate, for his share of his Father's or Sister Cecile's estate, without setting up any claim for a further or larger sum on that account, either for principal or interest, as I have settled with his Sister Emma Le Roy, and her husband for their share of the said estates upon the same terms —

Second. I revoke so much of my said Will in relation to the moiety of my estate to be settled to the the moiety of my estate to be settled to the separate use of my daughter Emma Le Roy, as directs that the said moiety shall be conveyed transferred and assigned to her, her heirs, executors and administrators forever, in the event of her surviving her husband the said Narcise Le Roy: and my will is that the said moiety of my estate shall be settled to the sole and separate use of my said daughter Emma Le Roy, notwithstanding her coverture of her present or any future husband, and so as that she shall not sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of her interest in the same, in the way of anticipation, and that her ~~husband~~ said interest shall be for the term of her natural life, and no longer, and after the death of the said Emma Le Roy, my will is, that the said moiety of my estate shall be equally divided among such children of my said daughter or the issue of deceased children as she shall leave surviving her, the issue of deceased children as sent their parents, and take shares accordingly: and if my said daughter should leave neither children, nor their issue, living at her death, then my will is that the said moiety of my estate shall go to such person or persons, then living, as by the laws of this State shall at that time be entitled to distribution of my Estate.

Lastly, I ordain and declare this present writing to my said will to be a bequest and to be assumed, taken and taken as and every clause hereof.

the said Narcipe Le Roy: and my will is that the said moiety of my estate shall be settled to the sole and separate use of my said daughter Emma Le Roy, notwithstanding her coverture of her present or any future husband, and so as that she shall not sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of her interest in the same, in the way of anticipation, and that her ~~husband~~ said interest shall be for the term of her natural life, and no longer; and after the death of the said Emma Le Roy, my will is, that the said moiety of my estate shall be equally divided among such children of my said daughter or the issue of deceased children as she shall leave surviving her, the issue of deceased children to represent their parents, and take shares accordingly: and if my said daughter should leave neither children, nor their issue, living at her death, then my will is that the said moiety of my estate shall go to such person or persons, then living, as by the laws of this State shall at that time be entitled to distribution of my Estate.

Lastly, I ordain and declare this present writing to my said will to be a Codicil and to be annexed thereto and taken as part thereof; and I hereby confirm my said Will in every particular and every clause, proviso, and condition thereof that is not hereby altered or revoked. In witness whereof I have to this Codicil set my hand

State of South Carolina. In the name of God Amen, I Angeline Colzy of Charleston widow of Charlemagne Colzy being of sound mind but weak in health and being desirous of disposing of my worldly estate affairs, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament. In the first place, I Commit my Soul to the Maker who created it and my Body to the earth, and as to such worldly estate whereunto it hath pleased Heaven to entrust me, I order and dispose thereof as follows. I give and devise and bequeath all my estate real and personal of any and every sort whatsoever together with every thing to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease, unto my children and Grand Children, therein after particularly named, to be divided equally among them.
