The State of South Carolina. The last Will and Testament of Hester Tidyman of Charleston in the State aforesaid. I Hester Tidyman do make and declare my last will and Testament in manner and form following. First, it is my will and desire that my Funeral expences and all my just debts be paid out of the money I may possess at the time of my death, if sufficient therefore, but if not, the Balance to be paid out of any Crops that may be made after my decease or any part of a Crop that may remain unsold. I here, I give and devise unto my son Philip Tidyman, his Heirs and assigns, my part, being one Fourth, of the marsh plantation, situate on the north side of the North Branch of Santee River, in the parish of Prince George County, in the State aforesaid, commonly called Marshfield, Bounded below by lands of Thomas Lowndes and above by lands of William Johnston. I term give and bequeath to my said son, his Executors and Administrators, his Bond which I hold for three thousand one hundred and twenty six pounds sterling, dated 30 July 1806 with the interest now due and to become due thereon, I give and devise unto my Grand daughter Hester Tidyman Drayton her heirs, Executors and Administrators, as the nature of the property may be established, my Pew, Number sixty, in Saint Pauls Church Radcliffeborough.
I term, I give and confirm to my said grand daughter Hester T Drayton her Executors and Administrators the following lands, already in her possession under a verbal gift hertofore made, viz, Doll and her child Martha, Sally and her children, Phyllis, Kate, Ellen, Susan (child of Ellen) and Lizzie with their future increase. I also give to my said grand daughter Hester T Drayton and devise unto my son Philip Tidymans, his Heirs and assigns, my part being one Fourth, of the marsh plantation, situate on the North side of the North Branch of Santee River, in the parish of Prince George Diocese, in the

the State aforesaid, commonly called Marshfield, Bounded below by lands of Thomas Lowndes and above by lands of William Johnstone. I further give and bequeath to my said son, his Executors and Administrators, his Bond which I hold for Three thousand one hundred and twenty five pounds
thereon, I give and devise unto my Grand Daughter Hester Tidyman Grayton her heirs, Executors and Administrators, as the nature of the property may be established, my Pew, Number Sixty, in Saint Pauls Church Radcliffborough.
Item, I give and confirm to my said grand daughter Hester T Grayton, her Executors and Administrators the following slaves, already in her possession under a verbal gift heretofore made, viz, Doll and her child Martha, Harry and her children, Phyllis, Kate, Ellen, Ben (child of Ellen) and Eliza, with their future increase. I also give to my said grand daughter, Chloe, Caesar my Coachman, Bob, Harry and Clarinda, with the future issue of the family.
Also all my Household and Kitchen Furniture of every description, Linen of every kind; Bed and Window curtains &c; all my Plate and Glassware and China and Glass ware of every kind; also my Book case and Books, all my Pictures and Looking Glasses, Miniature Pictures and a Writing desk my wind and stoves of every kind that may be in my house at the time of my death, also my carriage and horses and every thing belonging the above slaves and directed to be delivered to her immediately after my death Item, I give and bequeath my watch with the chain and Trinkets to my grand daughter Rose Ford. Item, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Maria Caroline Drayton all my wearing apparel. Item, whereas each of my grand daughters Phester, Maria, Harriet and Rose were entitled after my death to one fourth part of a Legacy of one thousand Pounds Sterling, bequeathed to me by my father, for life, and I have paid the share of Rose to her husband and the share of Harriet has become distributable by her decease I direct my Executors and Executrix to pay to Phester T Drayton and Maria C Drayton, the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds each, and to pay one fifth of the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds, for the share of Harriet to each of my grand children, Phester, Maria, Dorothea, Rose and Alfred - Item I give and bequeath my slaves not herein before bequeathed and also the slaves which my husband Philip Tidymann bequeathed to me for life with power to dispose of them among my children after my death, in manner following, that is to say, I give one third part of said slaves to my grand daughter Phester T Drayton her Executors and Administrators; of the remaining two thirds I give my grand daughter Maria one fourth part, to her, her Executors and Administrators. I give one fourth part to my grand daughter Phester T Drayton, subject to the trust herein after declared; I give one fourth part to my grand son Alfred R Drayton, his Executors and Administrators - Item I give and bequeath the remaining fourth part of the said two thirds to my grand daughter Phester T Drayton her Executors and Administrators, In Trust, however to permit my grand daughter Rose Ford and her husband to have and receive the issues and profits thereof, to their joint use, during

to have and receive the issues and profits thereof, to their joint use, during their joint lives, as a provision for the maintenance of my said grand daughter and the children of the marriage, so as not to be liable to the control, debts or contracts of her husband; and after her death in Trust for the children of the marriage that may then be living and the issue of any child that may then be deceased, in such shares and proportions as my said grand daughter, Rose, by last will and Testament may direct and appoint; and in case all the children of the marriage shall be deceased in her life time, then in
will, direct and appoint; and I hereby empower the said Weston T Drayton, at the request of my said grand daughter and her husband to sell and convey the said share, when and as often as by them may be deemed desirable, reinvesting the proceeds of each change of the property, real or personal to the
either of them who shall qualify, or the survivor of them, as soon after my decease as it can conveniently be done, shall cause a division of the negroes mentioned in the ninth clause of this my will to be made by impartial persons, to be by them (or either of them as herein before mentioned) appointed for that purpose, or if they or the survivor shall deem it most advisable to sell said slaves, they or either of them as above expressed, shall have full power and authority to make sale of said slaves, either at public or private sale on such terms as they shall think most advisable and make a division of the proceeds of the sale; provided however, that if a crop be planted or harvested at the time of my decease no sale or division shall be made until such crop is completed and prepared for market. Item, If the money so received shall not be sufficient to cover the debts and expenses

debts or contracts of her husband; And after her death in Trust for the children
then be deceased, in such shares and proportions as my said grand daughter, Rose, by last will and Testament may limit and appoint; and in case all the children of the marriage shall be deceased in her life time, then in
will, direct and appoint; And I hereby empower the said Weston T Drayton,
reserving the proceeds of each change of the property, real or personal to the
either of them who shall qualify, or the survivor of them, as soon after my
persons, to be by them (or either of them as herein before mentioned) appointed
money I may be possessed of at the time of my death should be more than ought to be required for funeral expenses and debts, I give and bequeath the remainder thereof, subject to the charge herein after made, to my children Hester, Maria, Dorothy and Rose shall be so apportioned among them, share and share alike, the share of Dorothy however by my grand daughter Hester T Drayton, subject to the same trust and clawd respecting the negroes, bequeathed in the ninth clause hereof.

If at the time of my death any crop or part of a crop belonging to me remain unsold; or if my decease should occur after the planting of a crop, and before the making and sale thereof, I give such crop or part of a crop, after deducting all plantation expenses and subject to the charge herein after made, to my grand children Hester, Maria, Alfred, Dorothy and Rose shall be equally divided among them share and share alike, the share of Dorothy however to be held by my grand daughter Hester T Drayton, subject to the same trust and clawd respecting the negroes bequeathed in the ninth clause hereof.
I give, and bequeath unto my grand daughter Hester T Drayton the sum of Two thousand dollars in trust to apply the same towards the expences of the first years House Keeping after my decease for herself and her two children Maria and Dorothy, it being my earnest desire that they should continue together; which sum of Two thousand dollars it is my intention shall be first charged on the money I may die possessed of and next on the proceeds of any crop that may be made after my decease or part of a crop which may remain unsold; and should these funds after defraying my funeral expences and debts be insufficient to pay this sum of Two thousand dollars, then it is my intention that the amount be made up from the sale of a part of the negroes mentioned in the Ninth clause hereof. Item, it is my intention that the sums directed to be paid by my Executor and Executrix in the eighth clause mentioned in the Ninth clause hereof. Item, it is my intention that the sums directed to be paid by my Executor and Executrix in the eighth clause be charged on the slaves mentioned and bequeathed in the Ninth clause of this my will. Item, I give Kitty and her child Prince to my grand daughter, Maria, her Executors and Administrators; but if Kitty should die in my life time, it is my will that my said grand daughter do take, in lieu of her, any young Negro woman, the daughter of either of my house servants. Item, I give and bequeath the bond of Frederick J. Ford, for Five thousand dollars, dated in June 1834, to my grand daughters Hester and Maria to be equally divided between them. Item, I will and direct that the property bequeathed to my grand daughter Hester J. Drayton in the ninth clause hereof, in trust for my grand daughter Dorothy, as well as the bequests to my said grand daughter Dorothy in the twelfth and thirteenth clauses be taken, received and held by my grand daughter Hester, upon the Trust, to receive and pay over to Dorothy the issues and profits thereof during her natural life, for her maintenance and support, and after the death of Dorothy to pay over and deliver said property to such person or persons as she may, by last will, leave and appoint the same to any part thereof; and my grand daughter Hester is authorised to sell, as often as she may deem proper, the said property or any part thereof, reserving the proceeds subject to the Trusts of this Bequest. I give the undivided remainder of my Estate to be equally divided among my grand daughters Hester, Maria, Dorothy and Rose Ford, alone and their issue. I nominate and appoint my son Philip Tidymon Executor and my grand daughter Hester J. Drayton Executrix of this my will, and her self and others jointly and severally.

in my life time, it is my will that my said grand daughter do take, in lieu of her, any young Negro woman, the daughter of either of my chamber servants. Item, I give and bequeath the bond of Frederick A. Ford, for Five thousand dollars, dated in June 1837, to my grand daughters Hester and Maria to be equally divided between them. Item, I will and direct that the property bequeathed to my grand daughter Hester T. Drayton in the ninth clause hereof, in trust for my grand daughter Dorothy, as well as the bequests to my said grand daughter Dorothy in the twelfth and thirteenth clauses be taken, received and held by my grand daughter Hester, upon the Trust, to receive and pay over to Dorothy the issues and profits thereof during her natural life, for her maintenance and support, and after the death of Dorothy to pay over and deliver said property to such person or persons as she may, by last will, limit and appoint the same or any part thereof; and my grand daughter Hester is authorized to sell, as often as she may deem proper, the said property or any part thereof, reinvesting the proceeds subject to the Trusts of this Bequest. I give, the undivided remainder of my Estate to be equally divided among my grand daughters Hester, Maria, Dorothy and Rose Ford, their and their issue alike. I also nominate and appoint my son Philip Fitzgerald Executor and my grand daughter Hester T. Drayton Executrix of this my will, hereby revoking all others heretofore made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my dotted and seal this Twentyeighth day of June in the year of our Lord
