 No. 38

In the Name of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe. I, Isaac Course of the City of Charleston and State of South Carolina, do make and constitute this to be my last Will and Testament, revoke--ing all others. My Executors hereafter mentioned are directed to pay all my just debts, and the Balance of my Estate to be equally divided between my three children Ann L. Wellington, Mary P. Starr and Isaac Course, first deducting the amounts either may have received previous to my Death, as will appear by their separate acknowledgments and memorandums among my papers. These sums to be considered as so much to be subtracted from the portion bequeath them.

And I do hereby nominate and appoint my sons Leon Smith Wellington, Edwin P. Starr and Isaac Course to be my Executors to the my last Will and Testament. Witness my hand and seal this fifth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty two.

Isaac Course (Seal)

Signed sealed published and declared by the said Isaac Bourse on his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence, subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

J. B. Thompson Daniel Holbeck Wm. J. Plaine

Whereas I Isaac Bourse of Charleston did make and duly execute my last Will and Testament in writing, bearing date the fifth day of March A.D. eighteen hundred and thirty two; Now I do hereby declare this present writing to be a bequest to my said last will & direct the same to be annexed thereto and taken as part thereof.

Reflecting on the diversity in the pecuniary situation of my children I have concluded to make some alteration in proportioning my property various from my said last Will and Testament; This appears to me but doing justice to my feelings as a parent, ever desirous to promote the success of my children. My son Isaac I baffle from inconsiderate and imprudent conduct having contracted debt which will absorb the principal part of the legacy left him by my said Will; which under his necessities I have been obliged to advance in anticipation for his relief. I do therefore direct and enjoin my Executors that in settling with him, only the simple and principal sums advanced to him for his use, shall be deducted from his said legacy and that no interest be charged on any moneys advanced him. I do also direct and enjoin that the same course shall be adopted in the settlement with my Daughter Mary J. Sparr.

and that no interest be charged on any moneys advanced him. I do
also direct and enjoin that the same course shall be adopted in the settlement with my Daughter Mary J. Starr and her Husband.
And whereas my Daughter Ann L. Willington, is desirous in case of accident, to herself, that provision shall be made for her beloved Harriet Elizabeth Willington, to whom from her infancy, I have been tenderly and devotedly attached, and whom my said Daughter has watched over and educated with a maternal solicitude and devotion, such as naturally would be expected from so affectionate a Daughter towards an only and affectionate child. Now I do hereby direct that in consideration of my Daughter's request, and on my own sincere affection for my dear Harriet, my Executors shall pay over to her the said Harriet the full sum amount of the Legacy, in my last Will bequeathed to my Daughter Ann L.
Willington, and that the ~~at~~ same shall be in full for all claims of my Daughter Ann upon my Executors. And I do hereby further request and direct my Executors to charge my Estate with one thousand Dollars as a Legacy I now give and bequeath to my grand son Charles Lewis Bourne, the same to be placed at interest on my Executors may think most advantageous for his Benefit. The principal and interest of said Legacy to be paid over to him on his becoming of Age. And in case of his death previous to that period the next surviving child of Isaac I Bourne and Maria Bourne to have same legacy under the above mentioned conditions. I am witness of all which I have set my hand and seal this thirty first day of January A.D. Eighteen Hundred and thirty seven William Wellington, to whom from her infancy, I have been

Charles Lewis Courser, the same to be placed at interest or my Executors may think most advantageous for his benefit. The principal and interest of said Legacy to be paid over to him on his
becoming of age. And in case of his death previous to that period the next surviving child of Isaac I leave and Minnie Courser to have same Legacy under the above mentioned conditions. In witness of all which I have set my hand and seal this thirty first day of January

Whereas by my last Will and Testament dated in Charleston the fifth day of March Eighteen hundred & thirty two; I then bequeathed my Daughter Mary P. Starr the wife of Edwin P. Starr of Charleston one third of my Estate; In order to secure the same bequest to her and children, do hereby add this Codicil to my said Will, appointing my friend A. S. Willington of Charleston, Trustee and Guardian to my said Daughter Mary, paying over to her whatever the annual proceeds of said legacy may be for her sole use and behoof, and not subject to the debts or under the control of her Husband, and I do desire my Executors named in my Will to consider this instrument of writing equally binding as if it had been inserted in the above described Will and Testament. In witness whereof I affix my name and seal, this first day of June in the year Eighteen hundred and thirty seven
